

THE COURIER-GAZETTE.

TWICE-A-WEEK . . . TUESDAY AND SATURDAY.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR.

ROCKLAND, MAINE, TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1903.

VOL. 58. NO. 66

Golden Grain

As a food product corn heads the list of grains in nutritive elements, necessary to human sustenance. The process of extracting and retaining these valuable food properties have made

Karo

CORN SYRUP

The Great Spread for Daily Bread.

A golden syrup so good, pure and wholesome that infant, invalid or dyspeptic can eat it with safety. It's a table delight for morning, noon or night. Coaxes the appetite and makes you eat. Sold at grocers. 10c, 25c and 50c tins.

CORN PRODUCTS COMPANY, New York and Chicago.

Season of 1903 RESUMPTION OF THE POPULAR AFTERNOON SAILS

Across Penobscot Bay and Among the Fox Islands
Via Steamers of the Vinalhaven & Rockland Steamboat Co., from Tillson's Wharf, every week day.

TRIP NO. 1.—Str. Gov. Bodwell leaves at 1.30 p. m. for Vinalhaven via Hurricane Isle, due at Vinalhaven at 3 p. m. Returning, leaves Vinalhaven at 4 p. m. for Rockland, via Hurricane Isle and North Haven, due at Rockland at 6 p. m. This trip affords one hour at Vinalhaven—1 1/2 hours at Hurricane Isle.

TRIP NO. 2.—Str. Vinalhaven leaves at 2 p. m. for North Haven, due there at 3 p. m. Returning, leave North Haven at 5 p. m. via Str. Gov. Bodwell, due at Rockland at 6 p. m.—this trip allows about 2 hours at North Haven.

Round Trip Tickets—either trip—good for day issued, 50 cents. W. S. WHITE, Gen. Mgr.

SPECIAL BARGAINS

AS LONG AS THEY LAST WE WILL GIVE

FREE!

To the purchaser of One Pound of Tea, or Two Pounds of Coffee their Choice of the following articles:

A
Six-Quart
Enamelled
Preserving
Kettle

A two-gallon STONE BUTTER JAR and COVER, best quality. Half-dozen PINT FRUIT JARS and Rubbers. Four ONE QUART FRUIT JARS and Rubbers. Three TWO QUART FRUIT JARS and Rubbers. Two or Three QUART MAJOLICA PITCHER, and many other articles of equal value.

18 lbs. Granulated Sugar for $1.00 to purchasers of Tea or Coffee.

SCOTT & CO. TEA IMPORTERS and COFFEE ROASTERS

ROCKLAND

CHARLES T. SAUL OPTICIAN

818-819 Coloidal Bldg.
100 Boylston St., Boston

Will Be in ROCKLAND
Aug. 18th to Sept. 1st and will devote a part of the time to the fitting of GLASSES. All those desiring my services will kindly notify me by mail, and I will call at your residence and consult with you FREE OF CHARGE. All orders received from Island towns, as well as all others, will receive prompt attention.

Charles T. Saul
OPTICIAN 65 68

The Courier-Gazette. TWICE-A-WEEK.

ALL THE HOME NEWS

Published every Tuesday and Saturday morning from 409 Main Street, Rockland, Maine.

NEWSPAPER HISTORY
The Rockland Gazette was established in 1846. In 1874 the Courier was established, and consolidated with the Gazette in 1882. The Free Press was established in 1895, and in 1897 consolidated with the Tribune. These papers consolidated March 17, 1897.

THE ROCKLAND PUBLISHING CO.
Subscriptions $2 per year in advance; $2.50 if paid at the end of the year, single copies three cents.
Advertising rates based upon circulation and very reasonable.
Communications upon topics of general interest are solicited.
Entered at the postoffice at Rockland for circulation at second-class postal rates.

VIRELAND-BENJAMIN, Special Advertising Agency, 150 Nassau street, N. Y., representative for foreign advertising.

No man receives the true culture of a man, in whom the sensibility to the beautiful is not cherished, and I know of no condition in life from which it should be excluded—Channing.

Hon. Grover Cleveland is delighted with the fishing and scenery at Lake Meddybemps down in Washington county and regrets that he had not realized the charms of Maine before.

Gen. Miles is the latest fancy of certain Democrats who do not appear to be satisfied with the other candidates who have been named for the presidential nomination. Norman E. Mack of the Democratic national committee is quoted as saying that "Gen. Miles can be looked upon as a formidable candidate and would make a good president."

A suit of clothes which belonged to Daniel Lambert, the Leicestershire giant, was offered at auction at Stratford, Eng., recently. Lambert was the most corpulent man of his generation and weighed upward of 700 pounds. Gen. Tom Thumb once walked through the arm of his coat. The bidding reached $375, at which figure the lot was withdrawn.

The United States paid out in ocean freight last year about $250,000,000—the greater part of which went into the pockets of foreign ship owners. It would have been quite an item in our national prosperity if this money could have been kept at home. At the same time, says the Kennebec Journal, it is gratifying to know that our exports were so large as to call for this immense total in transportation expenses.

Ohio is the sixth state to get out of debt. The other five are Illinois, Nebraska, West Virginia, and New Jersey. South Dakota announces that she has completed arrangements for wiping out her debt in 1904, and she will celebrate the event with due and befitting ceremony. Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, North Dakota, Wisconsin and Michigan have now reduced their debts so far that they will probably discharge them within the next half dozen years.

An old bachelor living about six miles from Richmond, Kan., was a large boned fellow. He had lived for years in a little old shanty. The flood washed it away, but left in its place a new, well-built, six-room house, which is well furnished throughout. The bachelor tried to find out where it came from. Having failed he decided to take what the Lord provides, and is living very comfortably in it, and is thinking of making an addition to his household.

When the two factions of reforming Democrats meet in national convention next year there will be a sight worth seeing. That the ship of state is on the shoulder of Mr. Bryan is evident from his recent utterances. In one of his speeches he says that the trouble in the Democratic party began in 1882, "when a bad party was formed in the net of Wall street." The exploit, he declares, cannot be repeated nor can those who "have not been loyal resume leadership until after they are at least repentant." In the opposite current encounters this sort of atmosphere there is apt to be a sudden chill.

It is rather curious to know how much pressure an egg will stand. The following tests were recently made public, and may, says "Science Sitings," cause some surprise. Eight ordinary hen's eggs were found to give way only under a pressure applied all around of between 400 pounds and 675 pounds on the square inch of surface. When the tests were applied internally to twelve eggs they yielded at pressures of 32 pounds to 56 pounds a square inch. The pressure required merely to crush the eggs was between 40 pounds and 75 pounds a square inch. The average thickness of the shells was thirteen one-thousandths of an inch.

There is a humorous side to the Boston Herald, which has recently been made quite prominent in The Sunday Herald. Some papers are content with one funny man, but in these days, The Boston Herald does not seem content with anything. No less than seven clever humorists are now contributing to its columns. First is the clever Editorial paragrapher, who ranks all paragraphers, then comes the brilliant chatterer, both shrouded in more or less mystery. "Joe" Smith, the clever satirist, deals out advice to our statesmen and captains of industry. McClure raps out a little philosophy and patriotism. John Kendrick Bangs talks of things in a way to amuse. Hank Spink brings up to view the life which the city folk remember and the country folks enjoy, and Merriman, in his letters from a Son to His Self-Made Father, has made a decided hit. But these are not all—Wallace Goldsmith, in his clever caricatures, contributes much wit and tend to lighten life, while O. P. Williams, in his cartoons, gives a daily lesson in politics. All these men work legitimately, and awaken the nerves of laughter in a healthy way—in contradistinction to the methods of the polychrome artists of the Florida journals—to read The Herald Humorists is to laugh.

In New York.

Our Correspondent's Glimpses of Things Going On At Gotham.

It seems odd that so many gross misconceptions should be current respecting the tastes and habits of John Chinaman, especially in the Metropolis where ample opportunity is afforded for studying the peculiarities of the gentile Celestial. Odder still is the fact that publications of high standing will accept and publish weird stories of Chinatown, written by persons regarding whom the most charitable supposition is that they have never visited the places whereof they babble so erroneously.

These rests the responsibility for the shudder which agitates the frame, and the visions of mice, puppy-dogs and similar gastronomic horrors which infect the brain of the average American when the subject of Chinese cookery is broached. The best cure for victims of the penny-a-liner's ignorance or love of sensationalism is a call at any one of New York's dozens of Chinese restaurants. At the very outset the investigator will detect a glaring error recently made by a contributor to one of the leading magazines. This was the assertion that "a peculiarity of Chinese restaurants is that they always enter through the kitchen." As the fifty or more establishments which I have personally visited were exceptions to this rule (and as people of still wider experience have assured me that their observations coincided with my own, it seems safe to assume that the writer in question had either never been inside a Chinese restaurant, or that he was wilfully guilty of what the school children call a "whopper."

While our searcher after truth will not find himself deceived in his investigations with a tour of the kitchen, he will find that department open to inspection at all hours. Indeed, in many instances the kitchen is no more than an alcove, doorless and curtainless, opening directly upon the main room; and the customer is at liberty to watch the preparation of his own order if he so desire. Thus, at the very threshold, still his cherished illusions concerning the "mysteries" of the Oriental cuisine are dispelled. He will behold nothing revolting, nothing uncanny. Merely a big range of American make, or a brick affair of oriental construction, a string or two of smoked fowl, some cooking utensils of unfamiliar shapes, and a number of large wicker trays and baskets containing chicken, spiced pork, bean sprouts, celery, onions, eggs, bitter cucumbers, with jars and cans of ginger, bamboo tips, mushrooms and various fruits peculiar to the Far East.

Every Piece Is a Longing for More

The Taste Tells

You like candy? Of course you do. But I haven't eaten any for years, you say. Couldn't get the kind you knew was good! Lots of people don't eat candy for the same reason. This excuse is no longer good.

The Utopian Chocolates

satisfies every desire. They are pure—they satisfy the taste—each one creates a longing for more. Let us satisfy you that the Utopian is the chocolate you have been looking for.

GEORGE B. CASEY, COFFEE MAIN and LINDSEY STS.

Correct in Value as in Form

ARE THE

W. L. DOUGLAS

$3.00 and $3.50

SHOES FOR MEN

REMEMBER

We are still selling Men's

GENUINE

VICI KID SHOES

made to retail at $2.50 and $3

FOR ONLY

$1.49 Per Pair

The great cry of today is

Don't Diddle

We have a large assortment of these popular Shoes constantly on hand.

Oxfords, $2.50

Boots, $3.00

BOSTON SHOE STORE

The Under-Pier Store,
21 NICHOLS & BLDG., FOOT OF PARK ST.

MRS. CORTELYOU, WIFE OF THE SECRETARY OF COMMERCE AND LABOR.

Mrs. George B. Cortelyou, wife of the new cabinet member, is a great favorite in Washington society. Her husband's rise in life has been rapid, but she has kept pace with him and is considered one of the most charming members of the cabinet circle. She is the proud mother of three boys and a baby girl.

East, and all is scrupulously clean. In fact, the purity of Chinese viands would quell the scruples of the most exacting New England housewife. In this regard they present a striking contrast to the filthy, greasy, and unwholesome viands which are fearfully palatinized by the delectations of Chinese culinary art!

Having satisfied himself that there is no danger of his supping unawares upon rotent or canine compounds, the visitor re-enters the main room and seats himself at a table. If the restaurant be one whose patrons are chiefly Celestials, the apartment will probably be barren of adornment and furnished with plain wooden tables and stools. If on the other hand, the proprietor caters to American dollars, his establishment will present a gorgeous ensemble of gilded carvings, Chinese prints, glass and paper lanterns, and carved teakwood furniture inlaid with mother of pearl. Just here, let me suggest, that the cooking will usually be better in the simple than in the pretentious hostelry, the shrewd Chinaman having long ago discovered that the "foreign devil like plenty show" but knows nothing whatever about Asiatic cookery.

The bill of fare is a grotesque jumble of Chinese and American names, the latter frequently being laughable misfits as in the case of that delectable concoction known to the infia as chop suey, or chow dog. It is nothing more nor less than an omelet containing shreds of spiced pork, mutton, celery and onions; yet frequently masquerading upon the bill of fare as ham and eggs!

The Chinaman is unable, as a rule, to translate into our alphabet the pot-hooks which represent his dishes in his own language, so he dictates his menu to the printer who writes down the names as they sound to him. As a result, the most singular mistakes and distortions are of common occurrence. "Yit ke moun, (chicken-mountain) soup" is the most frequent sufferer in this line. During the past year, I have seen it spelled "yocky man," "yeekka main," "yet ko mein," "yokkomain" and in a dozen other ways equally amusing.

The most popular delusion in regard to Chinese delicacies is that they are indigestible. Even the genial poet and novelist, Holman P. Day, has a shy at the inoffensive "Pigtail" in some deliciously droll verses entitled "Aux Restaurants Chinois." As a matter of fact, the most noticeable characteristics of the products of the Eastern cuisine is their perfect healthfulness and digestibility.

Other ills of the flesh may afflict John Chinaman, but to him the giant "Dyspepsia" is an unknown foe. The sole drawback to a Chinese diet is that it digests so readily that an hour after you have partaken of a square meal you are horrified to find yourself ready for a second!

The greatest day in the history of China was Wednesday, Aug. 24, when Luna Park held its Carnival of Nations. Nothing so stupendous in the amusement line has ever before been attempted and the park was crowded from noon until midnight despite the threatening weather. In addition to the regular amusements, the management presented over a hundred free out door acts by performers of the highest class, including Hindus, Chinese, Japanese, Arabs, tall in native costume, beside American vaudeville artists and acrobats and a troupe of trained animals. Two rings were constructed in the lagoon at opposite sides of the electric tower and in these a continuous performance took place. There were several startling acts on the high wire, shooting the chutes and looping the loop on bicycles, a fine pyrotechnic display, and three weddings; one in the submarine boat, another in the airship, and a third in the lion's cage. We witnessed the last mentioned ceremony and it was a memorable affair. The bride, a pretty Brooklyn girl, stood there surrounded by huge lions, tigers, and other fierce carnivora, apparently as composed as if she were in her own parlor. The trainer stationed himself behind the bride, with his hands on her shoulders, and in turn, fixed his gaze upon the intruders with expressions indicative of deep interest and surprise. The other members of the party, including the minister who apparently was not ambitious to play the role of Daniel, stood outside the bars. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the trainer shook hands

Chats on Books.

Virginians say that Thomas Dixon, Jr.'s, home, "Elmington Manor," at Dixonsdale, Va., on the shores of the Chesapeake bay is one of the most beautiful estates in the state. He has a mile and more of beach on his own place, and it is a drive of two miles from his front gate to his house. There are 300 large shade trees on his lawn. Although his house has thirty-five rooms, he built a log cabin down near the water that he might have an isolated place to write in. Mr. Dixon is one of those fortunate authors who has a large income from his novels, and his new novel of the evils of divorce and Socialism, called "The One Woman," though only published a few days ago, promises to be his most successful book in a financial way.

If Albert Ronacher, author of "Deep Sea Vagabonds," just published by McClure, Phillips & Co., were suddenly asked what was his trade, he would probably be some time making up his mind just what would be his correct answer. No doubt he would finally declare himself a writer of books by vocation, but it would be only after running over in his mind a long list of professions he could equally well lay claim to. In his twenty-fourth year now, he has successfully been, since leaving home at sixteen, trapper, cattle-herder, sailor, art-student, compositor in a newspaper office, prisoner-of-war (if that may be classed as a profession), interpreter on General Young's staff in the Philippines, civilian-scout in the United States military service, school teacher, artist, newspaper reporter, author and lecturer—all within a period of eight years. A varied experience, certainly, and one from which he ought to be able to draw a vast amount of material for books.

The third installment of Mrs. Gabrielle E. Jackson's story, "Three Good Croons," appears in the August issue of the American Boy. The cover page consists of a splendid picture of "The Old Swimmer" Hole. "Captured," by that fine writer for boys, J. L. Harbottle, tells how two boys captured an immense serpent belonging to a circus. Some of the other leading contributions in the August number are: "A Voyage on the Snow," by Will Lisenbee; "The Beginnings of an Astronomer," "The Washington High School Cadet" with some fine pictures, "The Summer Life of the Roosevelt Children," "Tip's Heroism," "Life on a Man-of-War," "Across Niagara with Blondin," "The Printer's Apprentice," "Something About the American Captain," "The Way to Pich," "The Curly." There are dozens of practical, helpful departments which will encourage and inspire boys to do things. This best boy's paper in the world is absolutely clean in every respect and has won the confidence and esteem of 110,000 families who receive it each month regularly. Its wonderful success is well deserved.

As the question of the size of family appears to be much discussed just now, says a writer in the Popular Science Monthly, I should like to call attention to the low birth rate in novels and plays, which, united as it is with a high death rate, will inevitably lead to the rapid extermination of the hero and heroine. I am under the impression also that the birth rate is decreasing, and while families of a respectable size may be found occasionally in Thackeray and Dickens, they scarcely exist in Meredith, Hardy and James. Although, so far as I am aware, attention has never been called to the alarming conditions, their existence will be recognized readily by readers of novels and playgoers. It will suffice to refer to two novels, which I think are fairly typical—"Vanity Fair" and "Beauchamp's Career." Becky Sharp was an only child, nor do we hear of uncles or aunts. "Vanity Fair" is a novel without a hero. Sir Pitt Crawley, twice married, has four children, his brother five and his sister none; so there is an average family of three, just sufficient to maintain that questionable line, Osborne and Dobbin each have six sisters, and we have again the family required for a stationary population. The Sedley family consists of brother and sister. In the next generation, however, things are worse. Amelia has two husbands and two children, Becky one child, Sir Pitt one and Josh none. This is apparently an average family of 1.53, which is almost exactly that of the Harvard graduates, according to the President Eliot. In "Beauchamp's Career" Nevil is an only child and leaves a child to survive him; Everard Romney, marrying childless Mrs. Culling, has one child who dies in infancy; his brother has none; old Mrs. Beauchamp has none. Austin, Baskiet, Lydard and Dr. Shrapnel leave no posterity. Of the three heroines, Jenny and Cecilia are only children; Rebecca is the typical French family of two, but has herself no children. This is obviously a very bad state of affairs—an average family of one-half child and a net fertility of only 0.45. As these statistics have been collected in large measure from a fallible memory, they may not be exactly correct, and they may not be entirely representative, but I am confident that they would be substantially confirmed by more accurate and extensive data. They certainly foretell the rapid extermination of the population of the novel.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

My Life Is Like a Summer Rose.

My life is like the summer rose,
That opens to the morning sky.
But ere the shades of evening close,
Is scattered on the ground—to die!
Yet on the rose's humble bed
The sweetest dew of night are shed,
As if she wept such waste to see
But one shall weep a tear for me!

My life is like the autumn leaf
That trembles in the moon's pale ray:
It holds its frail—its life brief,
Restless—and soon to pass away!
Yet, ere that leaf shall fall and fade,
The parent tree will mourn its shade,
The winds will leavell the leafless tree—
But none shall breathe a sigh for me!

My life is like the pink, which feet
Have left on Tampa's desert strand;
Soon as the rising tide shall beat,
All trace will vanish from the sand;
Yes, as if grieving to efface
All vestige of two human race,
On that lone shore loud moans the sea—
But none, alas! shall mourn for me!
—Richard Henry Wilde.

This is what Ayer's
Hair Vigor does: Restores color to gray
hair, makes the hair
grow, stops falling,
cures dandruff. Isn't that enough?

COME TO ROCKLAND

WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, AUG. 19, 20, 21,

And See the North Atlantic Squadron of Uncle Sam's Navy.

THE WHOLE NORTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON-GREATEST EVENT OF ITS KIND IN THIS CITY.

ROCKLAND MERCHANTS

Extend a CORDIAL WELCOME TO ALL Who Come to Visit Their Stores.

The Courier-Gazette.

As the roof closes over the new Public Library and its dimensions are disclosed to view, visitors more and more are impressed with the fact that the completed building is going to be a great honor to our city.

Old Home Week appears to have scored in some parts of Maine very favorably. Rockland wasn't officially in the procession this year, but there are many former residents old-homing here and being entertained with old-time hospitality.

Next year marks the semi-centennial of Rockland's incorporation as a city. It isn't too early to begin laying preliminary plans for a suitable observance of the anniversary. That will be an occasion when Old Home Week ought to receive marked recognition.

Rockland harbor will this week witness a sight absolutely novel to these waters, namely the congregating within the protecting arms of Owl's Head and the Breakwater of two-score or more of Uncle Sam's vessels of war. It will be great times for our city and the neighboring towns and ought to attract thousands of sight-seers. The waters of the harbor will present a busy and an inspiring sight.

In the last fifty years a Republican tariff has been in force most of the time. The Republican party is the champion of a tariff that protects the exceptionally good wages of American workmen and develops industries upon our own soil. If the protective policy were wrong, figures would show it. A brief comparison of the industrial situation in 1900 with that in 1850 is instructive. The number of factories in the United States in that half-century period increased from 123,025 to 512,339; the number of wage-earners from 857,069 to 5,316,802, and the yearly product from $1,019,000,000 to $13,014,000,000. The product grew thirteenfold, the number of wage-earners sixfold and the number of factories fourfold. The production of coal in the same time increased seventyfold; of petroleum more than a hundredfold; of pig-iron twenty-fourfold, and of copper thirty-fivefold. In 1850 the yield of cotton was 2,332, 718 bales, and in 1900 9,436,416 bales. Our railway mileage grew from 9021 miles in 1850 to 194,321 in 1900. In 1860 the tonnage at the Soo canal was 403,657; in 1900 it was 22,315,834. Exports of manufactured articles have grown from $17,580,000 in 1850 to $433,851,000 in 1900. The gain in exports of manufactures has been from $228,000,000 in 1896 to over $400,000,000 in 1902. In the light of these figures, it is useless to deny the results of Republican tariffs. They are unparalleled in the history of the world. Our workmen are the most productive, as well as the best paid. Their handiwork advances constantly in the estimation of foreign consumers. The industrial and commercial expansion that has come under Republican tariffs speaks for itself, and indisputably.

Of course you use Adams Pills for constipation. 10c everywhere.

How Like!

Is the remark we frequently hear with reference to our productions and to get that likeness in what we strive for. The posing and lighting are important considerations, but our first care is to see that the picture correctly represents the sitter. We have some very nobby and absolutely new cards for the inspection of our friends. Among these cards is a very dainty cabinet shape that we make up at $3.00 per dozen.

MERRILL,

PHOTOGRAPHER,

564 Main Street, Rockland.

Warships Coming Today.

The North Atlantic Squadron, comprising a fleet of some 40 war vessels, was reviewed by President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, Long Island, yesterday, and is now steaming for Rockland where the vessels will rendezvous several days before proceeding to the attack upon Portland. They are due to arrive here during the afternoon or early evening and when at anchor in the harbor and bay will present a scene which may never be duplicated at this port in the lifetime of all who witness it.

The ships come here without invitation, but in spite of the splendid opportunity which it affords to see part of our great navy, there is a spirit of marked calmness. The board of trade took no steps toward advertising the great event in the surrounding towns, and if the multitude comes here it will be due wholly to the local newspapers.

Two colliers have been in the harbor several days and yesterday afternoon the U. S. S. Newport arrived. A small detachment of the Jackies was ashore last night and made considerable life. One cannot help thinking what Rockland will be if 3000 of them come ashore at one time as they did at Bar Harbor. Let 'em come!

Fell Thirty-Five Feet.

Harold Burgess, the 14-year-old son of Gershom L. Burgess of Rockport, had a thrilling experience at Spruce Head Saturday. The lad has been spending the summer there with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Brainerd, and with some other youngsters conceived the jolly idea of building a play house in the top of a high tree.

The obstructing limbs were cleared away, and by considerable effort the boys hoisted all of the necessary material into the tree top, where in due season the wonderful play house was constructed.

The favorite method of descent was by means of a rope, which eventually became unable to stand the strain imposed upon it, and when young Burgess started to leave the treetop Saturday the rope parted, giving him an unbroken fall of about 35 feet. He struck partly on his feet and partly upon his hip. The ground was a trifle on an incline, the earth was soft, and scattered about there were a number of boughs which had fallen there while the tree was being trimmed. These three facts conspired to save a tragedy.

Help was summoned and half a dozen men carried the lad quarter of a mile to the boarding house. Dr. Waggatt, who chanced to be in South Thomaston on a call, went promptly to Spruce Head and made an examination of young Burgess.

To the astonishment of everybody he found that no bones had broken. The boy was badly bruised and will be very sore for some days to come.

WASHINGTON CAMPMEETING.

The annual campmeeting at Washington will begin Saturday, Aug. 22 and hold over two Sundays. The society has purchased the grounds of Albert Miller, adjoining the grounds, and now have one of the best places in the state. There will be a number of speakers of national reputation, and no doubt all parts of Knox county will be well represented.

SHERMAN FAMILY.

The annual reunion of the Sherman family will be held on Thursday, Aug. 27, at the residence of J. E. Sherman, Ocean avenue, Ingraham's Hill. It is stormy, the first fair day. All relatives

Burdock Blood Bitters gives a man a clear head, an active brain and a vigorous body makes him fit for the battle of life.

Adams Pills cure liver ills. 10c.

Something Is Going To Drop!

Wednesday, Aug. 19.

It will be a great big chunk off the regular prices of our Mens, Boys and Childrens Summer Suits in Fancy Mixtures

The size of the chunk that will drop off will be 20 Per Cent.

Goods marked in plain figures. Take off one-fifth of the price—pay us the balance. There's not a man in town who can afford to stay away from this sale.

Sale closes 10 o'clock Saturday Evening.

A. J. Gregory & Son
CLOTHIERS AND OUTFITTERS

Fire in the Savoy Hotel.

Believed to Have Been Caused by Rats—The Proprietor and Mrs. John Murphy Had Uncomfortable Experience—A Fireman Injured.

For a short time Saturday morning it looked as though "the Brook" was threatened with a conflagration. Fire which broke out in a storeroom on the second floor of the Savoy Hotel had gained considerable headway, and the volume of fire and smoke which poured from the roof made it look extremely uncomfortable for the neighboring buildings, all of which were wooden structures except Farwell opera house block. The fire was confined to one portion of the building, however, and the department eventually drowned it out.

The fact that one of the lodgers desired to go away early in the morning was probably all that saved a big fire and loss of life. George Murphy of Boston, who has been proprietor of the hotel for several weeks—succeeding his sister-in-law, Mrs. John Murphy, who occupied the hotel for many years before 4.30 a. m. and discovered that the hotel was full of smoke. He found that it came from what is known as the linen room where several barrels of soap had accumulated. These barrels were burning briskly and the fire had communicated to the woodwork.

Mr. Murphy immediately aroused his sister-in-law, Mrs. John Murphy, who took the corner of Main and Limerock street. It was on this account that the fire had gained so much headway when the department arrived.

There were several minor casualties connected with the fire. Mrs. Murphy overcame by the excitement and smoke, was rushing directly toward the fire when Mr. Marston, perceiving her condition, seized her and carried her to the adjoining building. Mrs. Murphy told a reporter of The Courier-Gazette yesterday that she was entirely unconscious of what happened after she gave the alarm to the sleeping guests. Mr. Belfast last Wednesday. The forenoon meeting which was a business session, was called to order soon after 10 o'clock by the president, Hon. L. C. Morse of Liberty.

REGIMENTAL REUNIONS.

Dr. Benjamin Williams Elected President of the 8th Maine—The 26th at Belfast.

The annual reunion of the 8th Maine Regiment was held at Peak's Island last Wednesday. The meeting, taking place at the regimental headquarters. Among those present from this section were P. G. Ingalls, J. H. H. Hewett, William Newbert of South Warren, S. S. Bartlett of Washington, Dr. Benjamin Williams and Hillman Smith. The Lewiston Journal report of the reunion gave the following personal mention of two Knox county comrades: Thursday morning we were all up bright and early. An excellent breakfast was served under the direction of Major Hillman Smith, whose stories of the previous night had not detracted his reason. Major Smith is the one indispensable member here. He is always doing something for the comfort of the boys, and Mrs. Smith is even more useful in this direction than her husband. And was a good breakfast that was served and then the boys resumed the usual routine of swapping stories and singing songs.

"Pearl G. Ingalls of Washington is another of the useful members. For many years he has been the secretary and treasurer of the association and no better selection could be made. It is always a pleasure for the writer to meet his former townsman and neighbor in the good old town of Washington. Miss Alice, his charming daughter, is also a yearly visitor and she has been adopted as the daughter of the regiment."

Mr. Smith was elected treasurer of the corporation owning the building in which the reunion was held, and Maj. Hewett was elected clerk. Officers of the Regimental Association were elected as follows: President—Sergeant Benjamin Williams, Rockland; vice president—Major J. H. H. Hewett, Thomaston; secretary and treasurer—P. G. Ingalls, Rockland; necrologist—Rev. H. A. Philbrook, Oxford, Mass.; executive committee—Col. Hillman Smith and wife, Nelson Mayberry and wife, George E. Dutch and wife.

The 26th Maine Regimental Association held its 18th annual reunion in Murphy after ringing the fire alarm returned to the hotel and worked until overcome to such an extent that it was also necessary to carry him out. All of the guests saved their belongings, but Proprietor Murphy lost his watch and a set of diamonds. The watch was recovered Sunday.

Several of the firemen had uncomfortable experiences. Elias J. Burroughs of the N. A. Burpee Hose Co. was sent to the roof of the building to put a stream in the top story. With the nozzle he smashed in the skylight, and, as he supposed cleaned away the sharp edges. His feet had barely struck the floor of the attic when a piece of glass fell from the skylight and made a deep gash in his right hand. The dense smoke and the loss of blood left him in a very dazed condition when relieved. Afterward Dr. Adams took four stitches in the injured hand. Tom McKinney, also of the Burpee company had a finger on his left hand cut by glass.

The damage to the building, save in the upper stories, is largely by water. The hotel furnishings represent almost a total loss, while it will be necessary to make very extensive repairs to the building. Mr. Murphy estimates his loss about $3000, and is insured in Talbot's Agency at Camden for $1800. A portion of the hotel will probably be reopened just as soon as the losses can be adjusted.

The building is owned by Charles E. Havenner, who occupies a portion of it for his bottling business and who has billiard tables and bowling alleys in the basement. The latter are presumably much injured by water. His collection of birds and bird's eggs, valued at $2500, and said to be the finest in eastern Maine, was but little damaged. His stock of masks and theatrical goods suffered somewhat. Mr. Havenner is particularly vexed at the delay which the fire causes in his bottling business, for this is his busiest season of the year.

The fire is believed to have been caused by rats. There were matches in the store room and rats gnawing among them could easily have been responsible for the disaster.

E. B. Hastings & Co.

When you come to Rockland to see The War Ships this week come to our store and learn of the many nice bargains we have for your consideration.

E. B. Hastings & Co.

SPECIAL SALE

Clothing and Summer Wearing Apparel To Be Closed Out At a Great Discount.

We have got to make a sacrifice and sell out our Summer Goods, as our Fall Stock will all be in by Sept. 1st. Our store is only 77 feet long and it is full to the ceiling of

Men's, Youths' and Boys' Clothing Hats, Caps, and Furnishing Goods Mens' Women's, Boys', Misses' and Children's Boots, Shoes and Rubbers

To Make Room We Are Going To Slash Prices Right and Left

	Regular Price	Reduced Price
Men's Light Weight Fancy Suits,	$20.00	$15.00
Men's Light Weight Fancy Suits,	18.00	13.50
Men's Light Weight Fancy Suits,	16.50	12.50
Men's Light Weight Fancy Suits,	15.00	11.50
Men's Light Weight Fancy Suits,	12.50	10.00
Men's Light Weight Fancy Suits,	$8 and $10	7 98
Youth's Long Pant, Light Weight Fancy Suits, all reduced
Boy's Knee Pants Fancy Light Weight Suits,	5.00	3.50
Boy's Knee Pants Fancy Light Weight Suits,	4.00	2.50
Boy's Knee Pants Fancy Light Weight Suits,	3.00, 3.50	2.25
Boy's Knee Pants Fancy Light Weight Suits,	2.50	2.00
Men's Fall Overcoats that were	$10, $12, $15	8.98
We have found a great trade in Men's Negligee
Shirts, Samples,	$1, $1.50, $2	69
Men and Boy's Leather Belts,	50c, 75c	39
Men and Boy's Leather Belts,	25c	19
Men's Straw Hats,	50c, $1, $1.50	40
Men's Straw Hats,	25c	19
Children's Washable Suits,	50c, 75c	25
Men's Dress Suit Cases,	$1.25	98
Men's Dress Suit Cases,	$2, $2.50	1.89
Men's Dress Suit Cases,	$4	3.50

These are Real Bargains.

O. E. Blackington & Son

MAIN STREET NEAR PARK

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS

FOR ALL KINDS OF GOOD PAINTING

FOR SALE BY

Simmons White & Company

Lost and Found

LOST—At the depot, a lady's gold hunter's watch; later 8 on one side. Will under please leave at this office. 69-67

LOST—A brown and tan kitten, missing since Saturday. A reward will be offered by returning to Mrs. E. W. Berry, Park Rock, Rockland. 66-67

LOST—On Waldboro road between Gardner and Winslow's and McIntyre's store in Warren, a large canvas pile in gold setting. Finder will be rewarded by notifying Mrs. Annie Rokes Warren. 64-67

Wanted

WANTED—Young women to work in an Insane Asylum. Address P. O. Box 1176, Worcester, Mass. 66-73

WANTED—Second hand Open Stove to burn wood. Apply at Courier-Gazette office. 65

WANTED—Girl to do general housework. Apply to Mrs. E. C. MORAN, 62 Summer St., Rockland. 64-67

GIRL OR WOMAN for general housework. Apply to RICHARD SMITH, Ingraham's Hill. 64-67

GIRL WANTED—Competent girl for general housework. No washing or ironing. Apply to Mrs. C. W. GALE, 24 Orange Street. 65-66

WANTED—An experienced girl in a family of two. Apply to Mrs. D. N. MOULTON, 54 Masonic street. 65-67

To Let

TO LET—Store in Tibbets Block, Camden. Centrally located, near the electric road waiting room, good size, good light, good opening for music store, has a show window 12 feet long. Enquire of LORING the Stationer, Camden. 65-66

TO LET—Tenement and stable to let at 10 Rockland St. Apply to F. M. SHAW, Rock, Rockland. 65-66

TO LET—Two tenements on Bunker street. Enquire of J. W. ANDERSON, Rockland. 65-67

For Sale

FOR SALE, AT A BARGAIN—A good roll top oak desk. Inquire of E. E. L. ROBINSON, 40 Main Street, Rockland. 65-67

SCHOONER FOR SALE—At Bicknell's Wharf, Rockland, Sch. Paul Seavey, suitable for lumber, stone and coal trade; well found and all ready for sea. Inquire of THOMAS W. BICKNELL, Gloucester, Mass., or CHARLES E. BICKNELL, Rockland. 65-67

FOR SALE OR TO LET—A one-story house with barn. Will rent cheap or will sell on easy terms. For further information inquire of E. E. L. ROBINSON, New County Road. 66-67

FOR SALE—Story and a half dwelling, 19 North Main street, stable connected. Will be sold furnished or unfurnished. Terms reasonable. Apply next door to Mrs. Collins. 65-67

FOR SALE—A good horse, 8 years old, weight over 1100 pounds. Sound and in good condition. A good trade. New York 5 & 10 Cent Store, Rockland. 65-67

FOR SALE—A modern two-story house, pleasantly situated on Cedar street. Apply to MRS. NELLIE BIRD, Rockland High. 65-67

FOR SALE—Finest line switches $1 up. Also Crimps, Electric Hair Drying Machine, Hot or cold air. Drive in five minutes. ROCKLAND HAIR STORE, next door North of Fuller & Cobb. 36-41

FOR SALE—Two and one half story house. Situated at corner of Pine and Pleasant streets, Thomaston; in fine condition; will sell on easy terms or exchange for property in Rockland. Inquire of William H. Hatch, Thomaston or H. F. Hix Rockland. 41

FOR SALE—Best Sewing Machine Needle, Sewing Machine Attachments and parts for repairs. Repairing at short notice. FRANK H. WHITNEY, 322 Main St., Rockland, Me. 39-41

FOR SALE—A Gasoline Lamp, 41 feet over all, 9 1/2 feet feet over all. For terms apply to WILLIS WILLIAMS, Camden, Maine. 41

FOR SALE—Everywhere in Maine, Farms, Lake Camps and Seaside Cottages. Buyers, get our FREE Illustrated Catalogue. Owners, send us details of your property. E. A. STROUT, 120 Exchange St., Portland, Me. 41

FOR SALE—Sunny, a good one, will be sold cheap. G. W. DRAKE, at the Brook, Rockland. 41

Miscellaneous

COMM People make $3 per day, others make $2; anyone can make a dollar how does this strike you? Send stamp for particulars to 12 set stamps for the article. ROBERT G. WALLACE, Somerville Station, Boston, Mass. 66-67

WANTED—Ladies who are afflicted with a superior hair to use Ransom's hair cream, and guaranteed to do as claimed. ROCKLAND HAIR STORE, next door, north Fuller & Cobb's. 36

BORN

McGUIRE—Rockland Aug. 8, to Mr. and Mrs. James E. McGuire a daughter—Vernie Mae. Marks—South Thomaston, Aug. 25, to Mr. and Mrs. Almon Maker of Sopsa Beach, a daughter. BAY—Mountainville, Aug. 15, to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bray, a son. SHAW—Rockport, Aug. 21, to Mr. and Mrs. Melanah Shaw, a daughter.

MARRIED

LIGHT—CUNNINGHAM—Haverhill, Aug. 14, Eugene Light and Miss Blanche Cunningham both of Washington, by E. O. G. H. BARNARD—SILVERMAN—Long Cove, St. George, Aug. 17, by Rev. Russell Woodman, Harold A. Barnard and Blanche E. Silversby. PRAY—MAYHEW—Rockland, Aug. 17, by Rev. E. H. Chapin, Walter Pray of Somerville, Mass., and Ida J. Mayhew of Rockland.

DIED

DAUGET—Cushing, Aug. 13, Joshua Dauget. No such thing as "summer complaint" where Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is kept handy. Nature's remedy for every ailment of the bowels.

Talk of the Town

All aboard for the warships!

The Bathbone Sisters picnic at Oakland tomorrow.

Edwin Libby Relief Corps has a picnic at Oakland tomorrow.

Nelson Dingley Lodge of Good Templars added two new members to its list at the last meeting.

A well known Maine man in the city yesterday was A. H. Sawyer of the Millbridge shipbuilding firm.

There will be a special meeting for work of King Solomon Chapter, R. A. C. at 7 o'clock, Thursday evening.

The annual reunion of the First Maine Heavy Artillery Association is being held at Vinalhaven today.

The annual meeting of the Rockland, Thomaston & Camden Street Railway has its annual meeting in this city Wednesday, Aug. 26.

Capt. F. A. Peterson, who came home from Vineyard Haven a week ago, on account of illness, is able to be out and is rapidly improving.

Capt. Anthony Greeley fell between a barge and the wharf at the Northend last Friday, and one of his legs was injured considerably. He just escaped a slight squeeze.

Most of the frame for the roof of the Cornette building has been raised, and is being hoisted in. The exterior of the building will be well along toward completion before there is any sign of snow falling.

Letter Carrier S. W. Lawry, who has been on a two week vacation, arrived back on his route yesterday morning. Letter Carrier Alvah Babbidge is now having a vacation, and Chas. Walker continues as substitute.

A yard of roses is not a fractional companion to Charles T. Spear's 1400 feet of sweet peas now in full bloom at his garden on Middle street hill. This year he has 25 varieties and can show visitors one of the prettiest sights they ever witnessed.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

An excursion from Bangor brought several hundred visitors to this city yesterday. The unexpected showers of the early afternoon discovered them unprepared, huddling beneath convenient awnings. There's many a slip in the weather between Bangor and Rockland.

Dr. L. F. Bacheider will lead the meeting at Glen Cove next Sunday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock.

Joseph Brazier has moved from the new Thomaston road to Lisle street, S. H. Hall is making some improvements to his buildings on Masonic street.

An examination of candidates for state certificates, authorizing them to teach in Maine without further examination will be held in this city Friday, Aug. 28, beginning at 8 a. m.

The new steamer Monhegan will go to Monhegan next Sunday, leaving Camden at 8:15 and Rockland at 9 o'clock. On the return the steamer will leave Monhegan at 3 o'clock.

Prof. Rankin's closing dancing party takes place Wednesday evening in Kimball hall. The grand march begins at 8 o'clock. The general public and much fascination in these parties and there will doubtless be a good attendance.

Janitor Farrington of the federal building is laid aside for repairs. He took a bicycle spin to Camden one day last week, over-exerting himself with the long ride and producing a severe strain. Rest, however, will fetch him around all right.

Miss Edith Bicknell of this city, a graduate of Colby, has been appointed one of the teachers in the Eastport High school, to begin with the fall term. There was some competition for the place but Miss Bicknell's acknowledged merit finally decided the matter in her favor.

Four excursions carried a large number of people away from Rockland Sunday, but in spite of the attendance at the Oakland Park band concert was so large as to assure General Manager Haverhill that the Rockland National Bank was a former partner in the resort, and after his retirement brought a bill in equity in order to have the property sold and the proceeds divided. Frank H. Ingraham, the attorney, was appointed receiver by the court and had charge of the auction sale. There was quite a large attendance and the bidding was very brisk. The competition finally narrowed down to Capt. Lucien B. Keen and Harrison F. Hix. The property was knocked down to Mr. Hix for the sum of $295.

Meservey's Quintet held its fourth annual reunion at the Austin cottage, Holiday Beach, Sunday, being delightfully entertained by Maynard S. Austin, who was a former member of the organization. John E. Doherty who also belonged to the quintet at one time, was one of the special guests. Some of the old music books were brought forth and the quintet indulged in some selections which carried back their memories to some pleasant occasions.

Nine members of L. S. Robinson's class, which was organized in 1887, Charles Hayden in South Thomaston Friday afternoon and were most pleasantly entertained. Picnic supper was served and to the good things was added a bountiful supply of lobster stew and plain lobster. The visiting members of the class were Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Robinson, Mrs. George Crockett, Miss Kilman, Mrs. Morse, Mrs. F. C. Flint, Mrs. Joannette Dunton, Mrs. Gilbert Hall and Mrs. Minerva French. Mr. Robinson has been teacher of this class, continuously, for nearly 20 years.

Rockland last Saturday was in much the same condition as some of the beaches—without a mail. This was due to an accident to the ferry at Bath which prevented the transportation of mail.

The mishap occurred when a special train of gravel cars was about to be pushed aboard the transfer boat, Hercules. It is said that the trainmen misunderstood orders in giving the signal to have the train shoved on the boat, and although it was quickly discovered that the slip was not in condition to receive the heavy load, the signal for stopping was not given quickly enough to prevent the disaster. It was impossible to transfer trains across the river, but there was very little delay for the passengers for Rockland who were taken across on the Hercules to the opposite side of the river where a train was in readiness to take them to their destination, the same holding true on this side of the river for the west. No baggage was transferred all day, however. This arrangement proved very provoking in the afternoon when one of the longest trains of the summer rolled in to Bath from the west, but the passengers were quickly transferred across the river and home by the Hercules with general good humor. The newspapers and mail destined for this city did not arrive until 11 Saturday night, much to the disappointment of those who wished to read the report of the Corbett-Jeffries fight, and the inconvenience of the postoffice staff who did not get the mails disposed of until after midnight.

The schooner Grace Webster, which was launched at our wharf on the line by a Portland shipyard in 1867, and which has had a varied and somewhat remarkable career in the last 36 years, will soon be laid up at the wharf on the island of Metinic. This vessel came into the possession of I. L. Snow & Co. a few years ago after the crew had put an attachment on her in order to secure their wages. Laid up the vessel passed into the possession of James H. McNamara, who used her in bringing wood from the Fox Islands to this port. This was a violation of the law, and she was sold again to I. L. Snow & Co. for old junk. This firm intended to extend one of its wharves by putting the dismantled craft on the end and using her as a barge. The examination showed that the vessel was too near dissolution. It is now intended to tow the hull to Metinic, where it will be beached, and the rest of the examination will be left to the future. The remains will then be suitably cared for by the King of Metinic. The Grace Webster was a schooner of 37 gross tons and her original hulling port was Portland.

The barber shop at the Northend, formerly owned by Fred French, and now run by Hiram Young, was the scene of an apparently incendiary fire at midnight Saturday. Officer Sherer, attending duty in the vicinity, saw the fire and rushed to the scene. The fire was quickly extinguished, and the barber shop was found to be in good condition. The fire was caused by a bottle of kerosene which was found in the shed, and for the time being was supposed to be the cause of the fire. The barber's base of supplies, but this theory was denuded of its sensational feature when Mr. Young stated that he had put the bottle there in order to keep the shop lighted. It is doubted the incendiary even saw it. The lack of motive is perhaps the most puzzling feature connected with this fire. It could have been set for any number of reasons, and also those who contributed in the floral offerings. The many acts of kindness will ever be cherished.

The members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Twelve members of the class left Berry Bros. stable about 6:30 p. m. in the barge which has thus far carried the class on every reunion, and the party was joined at Crescent Beach by another member, thus making thirteen members of the class present. But in their annual reunions have come to be one of the eagerly anticipated events of the year by the members of the class who attend them, and Pearson's, the "recluse," remarks that it is only occasion of the year when he appears in society.

Oliver K. Ludwig was run over by a truck wagon at the Northend the latter part of the week, but his injuries were fortunately of a minor character. It was only a few weeks ago that he sustained a broken arm.

It is now up to one of the Farwell opera house orchestra members, who is so insistent upon the promptness of others, to explain how he got so badly left Sunday. Being a good walker was of no avail this time, for it was an execution by stay.

During the stay of the warships in our harbor the Knox Launch Co. will run launches from their dock at Tillson's wharf to the ships every half hour from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. The boats will be in charge of reliable men with licensed engineers.

A large audience Sunday evening listened to the sermon of Rev. W. J. Day at the First Baptist church, who took for his subject the recent sorrow that has befallen our city and lessons to be drawn therefrom. The Courier-Gazette will print this sermon in its next issue.

Haymaking operations are still dallying about the Knox coast, and no one is able to predict when the end will be. Frank W. Morse, who has harvested as high as 140 tons in a single year, says that the crop is much more bountiful than he had any reason to expect.

An auction sale which attracted a great deal of attention, particularly among horsemen, took place on Lime-rock street yesterday afternoon. The property under the hammer being the Simmons carriage repository and the lot of land on which it sits. Harrison F. Hix, cashier of the Rockland National Bank, was a former partner in the repository, and after his retirement brought a bill in equity in order to have the property sold and the proceeds divided. Frank H. Ingraham, the attorney, was appointed receiver by the court and had charge of the auction sale. There was quite a large attendance and the bidding was very brisk. The competition finally narrowed down to Capt. Lucien B. Keen and Harrison F. Hix. The property was knocked down to Mr. Hix for the sum of $295.

Clifford, the 3-year-old son of Ralph C. Staples, narrowly escaped being burned to death yesterday morning. The child's mother is visiting in Atlantic and the little boy was staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Staples, Warren street. He arose early in the morning and somewhere found the plaything which has been fatal to so many children, a bunch of matches. Mr. Staples missed the youngster, and going to an adjoining room found him with his nightclothes ablaze, shrieking loudly. Mr. Staples at once rushed to the child, extinguished the flames and sent for a physician. It was deemed best to take the child to the Knox General Hospital, where it was found that one arm and one leg were badly burned. The child was resting quite easily last night and the doctor from the hospital was to the effect that his condition was not dangerous.

The schooner Grace Webster, which was launched at our wharf on the line by a Portland shipyard in 1867, and which has had a varied and somewhat remarkable career in the last 36 years, will soon be laid up at the wharf on the island of Metinic. This vessel came into the possession of I. L. Snow & Co. a few years ago after the crew had put an attachment on her in order to secure their wages. Laid up the vessel passed into the possession of James H. McNamara, who used her in bringing wood from the Fox Islands to this port. This was a violation of the law, and she was sold again to I. L. Snow do the great investing public take advantage of the opportunities that are continually before them. It is invariably the custom of the every-day investor to wait until the bold and brainy men have demonstrated to them that they have something that is remarkably good, and after so demonstrating sell the same at a much higher price to the investing public than they themselves have purchased it for. It is right and proper that the men who have the boldness and courage to develop these enterprises while the prices are so high that there is but little if anything left for him? Why not be bold? Why not be a pioneer? Why not get in at the bottom and come to the top and get a part of the thick cream instead of waiting while it is taken off by others? The principal and almost the only thing for the average investor to do is to satisfy his own mind as to the character of the men with whom he is to become interested: are they honest, are they capable?

SELDOM IF EVER

In calling your attention to the opportunity for investing in the mines owned by the

BOSTON-TERRACE COPPER MINING CO.

We desire to say, and invite you to satisfy yourself of the fact, that the management is in the hands of honest and capable men, and that they are willing to let you share with themselves in one of the greatest opportunities that will ever be offered to the investing public. Not a prospect that they want you to develop, but a mine they have developed with their own money and brains, only waiting the completion of the new

SOUTHERN PACIFIC SYSTEM

to bring into the market one of the richest mining camps in that fabulously rich state of Utah, which has been known of for years, but which was inaccessible until the new railroad was built at the expense of millions of dollars. The Boston-Terrace Copper Mining Co. has been patiently waiting for the final consummation of this road, and in the meantime has been for the past four years going on with the development work of their properties so that, upon the completion of the road, and its management assure us that they will be ready to haul out ores in about four months, the Boston-Terrace Copper Mining Co. will be in a position to ship ore continuously to the smelters at Salt Lake City, and be able, from that time on, to pay dividends, not on a great capitalization, for this company is only capitalized for $500,000, but, probably, on the most conservative capitalization of any mining company in the state of Utah. We are offering the stock to the investors at $75.00 per share, full paid and non-assessable. Par value $10.00. We believe that it is the greatest and safest opportunity now before the public to accumulate a fortune, not in the future, but in the immediate present. It is not a prospect but a mine fully developed and only waiting for the cars to carry the ore to the smelters—ores which, according to the greatest mining expert in the state, Mr. Don Maguire, assay from $23.84 to over $1,100 per ton in gold, silver, lead, and copper.

If you are interested and wish to take advantage of this golden opportunity, or if you wish additional information, address

CHAS. T. BIRCHARD & CO., Fiscal Agents, 53 State St., Boston.

Uricene Cures Nothing But Rheumatism
It will cure YOU or you get your money back. All druggists.
In Tablet form only. NO ALCOHOL. Price 50 Cents.
THE WOODBURY CHEMICAL CO. (Incorporated) 170 Summer St., Boston, Mass.
FOR SALE BY W. J. COAKLEY, ROCKLAND.

You Don't Have to Pay

Your Money Down When You Trade With Us.

A Quarter Down and the balance in installments of a DOLLAR A WEEK.

ALL KINDS OF FURNITURE

Furnishings, Stoves, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Etc.
SECOND-HAND STOVES.

We do the COLLECTING.

REMEMBER, ONLY ONE FOURTH DOWN!

T. W. STACKPOLE, Thomaston, Me.

GRANITE CEMETERY MEMORIALS

Made from Selected Stock by First-class Workmen. Well Equipped Plant.

Are points which attract the attention of those seeking the greatest value for the least money. Fine display of new signs. Call and look them over. The quality of our monuments speak for themselves.

A. F. BURTON

Works near M. C. Depot,
THOMASTON. Telephone.

Frank H. Ingraham

Attorney and Counsellor at Law

1 Limerock Street

ROCKLAND - MAINE

NOTARY PUBLIC COLLECTIONS

James E. Rhodes, 2d.

Counselor at Law

WILLOUGHBY BLOCK, 341 MAIN STREET

ROCKLAND, MAINE.

Telephone 306-5 92

FRANK B. MILLER

Attorney at Law

Formerly Register of Deeds, for Knox County.

Real Estate Law a specialty. Titles examined and abstracts made. Money sent same day collected. Outlawed accounts collected. Bonds or leave bills at my office. All law business given prompt attention.

Office 427 High St., Rockland, Me.

Over Liverpool National Bank.

Chas. E. Meservy

Attorney at Law.

322 MAIN STREET, - ROCKLAND, ME

Agent for German American Fire Insurance Co., N. Y., and Fidelity Insurance Co. (Ld.)

PROBATE COURT.

Special attention given to Probate and Insolvency proceedings; years experience in Probate Office COLLECTIONS MADE.

PHILIP HOWARD, Attorney at Law.

388 MAIN ST., ROCKLAND.

MERRITT A. JOHNSON

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Recently County Attorney for Knox County, Me.

Formerly of the firm of Mortland & Johnson.

420 MAIN ST. Rockland, Me.

ALL BILLS

Collected promptly anywhere in the State. No costs unless success. Money sent same day collected. Outlawed accounts collected. Bonds or leave bills at my office. All law business given prompt attention.

L. D. JONES, Attorney at Law.

UNION, MAINE.

A. J. ESKINE, HOWARD A. BUTLER

A. J. ESKINE & CO.,

Fire Insurance Agency,

417 MAIN STREET.

Office, near room over Rockland "A" Bank. We

Leading American and English Fire Insurance Companies represented.

Travelers' Accident Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn.

GEO. T. HOLT

Eye Sight Specialist

308 Main St., Rockland, Me.

Special attention given to Astigmatism and all errors of refraction. Glasses made to fit complications peculiar to individual cases.

CONSULTATIONS FREE

W. V. HANSCOM, M. D.,

Surgeon

—Office 23 Park St.

400H—Until 9 a. m. 1 to 4, and 7 to 8 p. m.

Static E. P. and X-ray Work

Private 2121-1111 and X-ray Work

Phys. 2121-1111 and X-ray Work

Office Hours—Until 9 a. m., 1 to 4 and 7 to 8 p. m. Telephone connections.

Dr. Rowland J. Wasgatt

House formerly occupied by the late Dr. Coe.

13 SUMMER ST., ROCKLAND, ME.

Office Hours—Until 9 a. m., 1 to 4 and 7 to 8 p. m. Telephone connections.

E. B. SILSBY, M. D.

With Dr. Alden

38 Middle St., Rockland

Dr. T. E. Tibbetts

DENTIST.

Cor. Main and Winter Sts., Rockland.

DR. A. M. AUSTIN,

Succeeded by

AUSTIN & BICKFORD,

DENTISTS

414 Main St., Berry Block,

ROCKLAND, MAINE.

W. H. KITTREDGE

APOTHECARY

Drugs, Medicines, Toilet Articles.

Prescriptions a Specialty.

300 MAIN STREET, ROCKLAND

JAMES WIGHT,

Park Place, ROCKLAND, ME.

PHARMACEUTICAL GAS AND STEAM

Agent for BLAKE & KNOWLES STEAM PUMP

LAZARRE

MARY HARTWELL CATHERWOOD

(Based Upon the Mystery Surrounding the Fate of the Dauphin, Son of Louis XVI., and Marie Antoinette)

Copyright, 1901, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

(Began in issue of July 25).

CHAPTER XVIII.

BLACKNESS surrounded the post carriage in which I awoke, and it seemed to stand in a tunnel that was alive at one end. Two huge trees, branches and all, were burning on a big hearth, stones glowing under them, and figures with long beards in black robes passed between me and the fire, stirring a cauldron. If ever witches' brewing was seen it looked like that.

The last eclipse of mind had come upon me without any warning and tearing in the head, and facts returned clearly and directly. I saw the black robed figures were Jews cooking supper at a large fireplace, and we had driven upon the brick floor of a post house which had a door nearly the size of a gable. At that end and a ghostly film of open land, forest and sky. I lay stretched upon cushions as well as the vehicle would permit, and was aware by a shadow which came between me and the Jews that Skenedonk stood at the step.

"What are you about?" I spoke, with a rush of courage, sitting up. "Are we on the road to Paris?"

"Yes," he answered.

"You have made a mistake, Skenedonk."

"No mistake," he maintained. "Wait until I bring you some supper. After supper we can talk."

"Bring the supper at once then, for I am going to talk now."

"Are you quite awake?"

"Quite awake. How long did it last this time?"

"Two days."

"We are not two days' journey out of Mittau?"

"Yes."

"Well, when you have horses put in tomorrow morning turn them back to Mittau."

Skenedonk went to the gigantic hearth, and one of the Jews ladled him a bowlful of the cauldron stew, which he brought to me.

The stuff was not offensive, and I was hungry. He brought another bowlful for himself, and we ate as we had often done in the woods. The fire shone on his bald pate and gave out the liquid lights of his fawn eyes.

"I have made a fool of myself in Mittau, Skenedonk."

"Why do you want to go back?"

"Because I am not going to be thrown out of the palace without a hearing."

"What is the use?" said Skenedonk.

"The old fat chief will not let you stay. He doesn't want to hear you talk. He wants to be king himself."

"Did you see me sprawling on the floor like the idiot?"

"Not like the idiot. Your face was down."

"Did you see the duchess?"

"Yes."

"What did she do?"

"Nothing. She leaned on the women, and they took her away."

"Tell me all you saw."

"When you went in to hold council, I watched and saw a priest and Belleguer and the boy that God had touched all go in after you. So I knew the council would be bad for you, Lazarre, and I stood by the door with my knife in my hand. When the talk had gone on awhile I heard something like the dropping of a buck on the ground and sprang in, and the men drew their swords and the women screamed. The priest pointed at you and said, 'God has smitten the pretender!' Then they all went out of the room except the priest, and we opened your collar. I told him you had fallen like that before and the stroke passed off in sleep. He said your carriage would put you in it and take you out of Russia. He called servants to help me carry you. I thought about your jewels, but some drums began to beat and I thought about your life. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"She believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"I believed in me—at first! Before I said a word she knew me. She wouldn't leave me merely because her uncle and a priest thought me an imposter."

"No. She went away with the women carrying her."

"It is very bright. I came up the hill from a dark place."
"Did the news of his death meet you on the post road?"
"It met me at the foot of this hill. The goose girl told me."
"Oh, you have been hurt!" she said, looking at me. "Your face is all seamed. Don't tell me about Mittau today. Paul and I are taking possession of the estates!"
"Napoleon has given them back to you!"
"Yes, he has! I begged the De Chamonts to let me come alone! By hard posting we reached Mont-Louis last night. You are the only person in France to whom I would give that vacant seat in the carriage today."

I cared no longer for my own loss, as I am afraid I have been too much my way through life, or whether I was a prince or not. Like paradise after death, as so many of our best days come, this perfect day was given me by the marquis himself. Eagle's summer dress touched me. Paul and Ernestine sat facing us, and Paul ate cherries from a little basket and had his fingers wiped, beating the cushion with his heels in excess of impatience to begin again.

We paused at a turn of the height before descending, where fields could be seen stretching to the horizon, woods fair and clean as parks, without the witness of the American forest, and vineyards of bushy vines that bore the small black grapes. Eagle showed me the far boundaries of Paul's estates.

Best of all was coming to the chateau when the sun was about an hour high. The stone pillars of the gate-way let us upon a terraced lawn, where a fountain played, keeping beat plumes of water in the air. The lofty chateau of white stone had a broad front with wings. Eagle bade me note the two doves or pigeon towers, distinctly separated by columns, which led to summer house of stone surrounded in ivy. We walked back and forth under this thick roof of verdure. Eagle's cap of brown hair was roughened over her radiant face, and the open throat of her gown showed pulses beating in her neck. Her lifted chin almost touched my arm as I told her all the Mittau story at her request.

"Poor Mme. d'Angoulême! The cautious priest and the king should not have taken you from me like that! She knew you as I knew you, and a woman's knowing is better than a man's proofs. She will have times of doubting the priest. She will remember the expression of your mouth, your shrugs and gestures—the little traits of the child Louis that reappear in the man."

"I wish I had never gone to Mittau to give her a moment's distress." "That was a strange thing—that you should fall unconscious!"

"Not so strange," I said, and told her how many times before the eclipse—under the edge of which my boyhood was passed—had completely shadowed me. At the account of Ste. Pelagie she leaned toward me, her hands clinched on her breast. When we came to the Hotel Dieu she leaned back pallid against the stone.

"Dear Marquis du Plessy!" she whispered as his name entered the story. "When it was ended she drew some deep breaths of silence."

"Sire, you must be very careful. That Belleguer is an evil man."

"But a weak one."

"There may be a strength of court policy behind him."

"The policy of the court at Mittau is evidently a policy of denial."

"Your sister died in you."

"Yes, she believed in me."

"I don't understand," said Mme. de Ferrier, leaning forward on her arms, "why Belleguer had you in London and another boy on the mountain."

"Perhaps we shall never understand it."

"I don't understand why he makes it his business to follow you."

"Let us not trouble ourselves about Belleguer."

"But are you safe in France since the Marquis du Plessy's death?"

"I am safe tonight at least."

"Yes, far safer than you would be in Paris."

"And Skenedonk is my guard."

"I have sent a messenger to Plessy for him," Mme. de Ferrier said. "He will be here in the morning."

I thanked her for remembering him in the excitement of her coming. We heard a far, sweet call through a cleft of the hills, and Eagle turned her head.

"That must be the shepherd of Les Rochers. He has missed a lamb. Les Rochers is the most distant of our farms, but its night noises can be heard through an opening in the forest. Paul will soon be listening for all these sounds. We must drive to Les Rochers tomorrow. It was there that Cousin Philippe died."

In Social Circles

Arrivals and departures incident to the summer vacation season are especially interesting as items of personal news. Readers of The Courier-Gazette will confer a favor by sending to this column items of this character noting the arrival of guests or the going out of town of our own people.

Cashier Berry of the North National Bank has been on a visit to Jackson, in the White Mountains.

Ralph L. Bartlett who has been spending a fortnight's vacation in Rockland and vicinity, has returned to Boston.

M. M. Genthner has returned from Dover, where he has been spending a fortnight at his old home.

George A. Lawry, who has been home on a fortnight's vacation, returned to New York, Saturday night.

Miss Annie Frye is home from Boston on a visit.

Frank H. Stiles of Cambridge, Mass., has been visiting friends in this city the past week.

Mrs. Noyes and Miss Maud Bunker of Charleston, Me. are guests at the Lamson cottage, Ingraham Hill.

Miss Alice Young is visiting relatives at Matineuse. She is accompanied by her niece, Miss Ethel Howard of Taunton, Mass.

Miss Alice Shaw of Cambridge is the guest of Judge and Mrs. L. R. Campbell.

Miss Florence Hanley and Miss Grace Turner, who have been guests at William Whitney's, have returned to their home in Boston.

I Merrill Conant of the Rockland National Bank and Joshua Southard of the North National Bank are spending their two weeks' vacation in Boston.

Mrs. John E. Leach was called to Haverhill, Mass., last week, by the death of her aunt, Mrs. Austin Sprague. The funeral services were held Friday afternoon.

The picnic of Wight Philharmonic Society which was to have been held at Ballard Park last Tuesday, was postponed to Wednesday of this week.

Henry Richmond of Philadelphia is spending a fortnight's vacation in this city and vicinity. He is stopping at Jason Packard's in Rockville.

Mrs. C. W. Deas of Salem, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Trask and children of Penobscot, Mass., are the guests of Mrs. R. H. House.

J. P. Prescott and wife are spending a few days at Northport Campground, the guests of Mr. Prescott's father, F. K. Prescott.

S. W. Gregory and family have returned from China, where they have been spending the past fortnight.

Mrs. Frank Staples is visiting friends at Swan Island.

Mrs. A. P. St. Clair and Mrs. Mary Leach are visiting Mrs. St. Clair's daughter, Mrs. Eugene Stoddard, at Maplewood, Mass.

Mrs. Aaron Howes entertained the Monday Club Thursday afternoon at her home, Knox street. As the club had not met for some time the ladies were greatly pleased at having the opportunity of enjoying an afternoon together once more.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Corright, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Carleton, Robert Tear and Miss Florence Corright spent last Friday and Saturday at the Norcross cottage, Owl's Head.

Mrs. Etta Erskine of Bristol is visiting Mrs. Theodore Thomas, Camden street.

Cliff Colcord and Albert Post of New York are guests of Joe Colcord.

Dr. M. P. Jenkins and wife and Mrs. Frank B. Miller attended the music festival at Old Orchard Saturday and Sunday.

Prof. F. F. Phillips of Somerville, Mass., was in the city on a brief visit the latter part of the week.

Miss Alice Johnson of Boston is visiting in the city.

Charles C. Snow and wife of Bath were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hodgkins.

Miss Florence Athearn of Hope has been the guest of Miss Alice Burpee the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Milliken of Tennyson, N. J. are guests of Mrs. Milliken's sister, Mrs. L. A. W. Robinson, Grace street.

Miss Alice Hamlin of Cambridge, is the guest of Miss Ethel Weeks at Ashmere.

Mrs. Vesta MacAllister of Chelsea, Mass. is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. MacAllister.

Mrs. Albert Erskine of Chicago and Miss Clara Erskine of Bristol, who have been guests of Mr. A. J. Erskine, Beach street, have returned home.

Miss Sadie Mitchell of Houlton is visiting Miss Jean Clough.

The marriage of Louis E. Shaw and Miss Grace E. Green took place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Capt.

and Mrs. A. F. Green, 41 Maverick street. Rev. A. A. Moore will officiate. Mr. Shaw and bride will leave on the 10:10 train for their new home in Brooklyn, accompanied by E. M. Shaw, and Mrs. Mary Burpee, father and grandmother of the groom.

William Glover Ruetter of Jamaica Plain, Mass. is the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Glover, Middle street. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ruetter, daughter, Martha and nurse are expected this week on their annual summer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Fales, who have been spending several weeks in this city, returned to their home in Boston, Saturday night.

Miss Emma Crockett is visiting in Belfast, the guest of her brother, Mark.

Mrs. M. B. Morse of Union is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilman and son Maurice of Portland are guests at F. C. Knight's, Beach street.

W. A. Hill of Winterport is the guest of his uncle, William A. Hill, Beach street.

Mrs. A. L. Simpson of Bangor is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. George W. Smith, Lincoln street.

A party consisting of Mrs. Mary McCarthy of Boston, the Misses Helen and Mary Harvey, and Mrs. John Babb of Rockland, Mrs. Alfred Babb of Woonsocket, Mrs. John Hanley and Miss Mary Hanley of Thomaston, Miss Abbie McDonald, Miss Katie Boardman and William Cullen were entertained at the Hiawatha cottage, Pleasant Beach, by Mrs. J. B. Colson and eight young ladies Friday evening.

Geo. W. Leadbetter called upon friends in Lewiston Sunday, going a portion of the distance with horse and carriage and the remainder by electric.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Roberts and Mrs. W. Leadbetter have returned from a week's outing at North Haven.

Clarence S. Beverage, who has been his home at Pulpit Harbor for the past week, returned to this city today.

C. W. S. Cobb, who has been here for two or three weeks with his family, left today for New York, where he will take in the great cup races and then return to St. Louis.

Dr. A. W. Taylor leaves Wednesday morning for a week's vacation and will attend the Advent campmeeting at Mechanic Falls.

The sixth weekly recital at the Rockland Music School was given Friday afternoon, the program being as follows: Henry Brindley, Sparrow, Edna Koster; The Old Man in Leather, Biedermann, Mildred Ryan; Humpty Dumpty, Baumfelder, Ethel L. Perry; The Jolly Harvesters, Williams, Margaret Mayo; Dolly's Favorite Polka, Englemann, Ethel Norton; Ensign March, Gliese, Edith Jean; May Flowers, Landon, Marion Franklin and Mrs. Fair's Spring's Awakening, Peacock, Alice Bartlett; In The Month of May, Behr, Sadie Franklin; Spring Flowers, Egghead, Everett Greene; Spinning Song, Elmendorf, Lizzie May; Murrain, Zephyrs, Niemann, Alice Fiske; Fraulinger's Rauschen, Sludling, Alice Shaw.

WORDS OF SYMPATHY.

Rev. Dr. Roberts Writes Feelingly In Connection With Rockland's Recent Tragedy.

A personal letter has been received by a member of The Courier-Gazette staff from Rev. W. S. Roberts, D. D., of Deep River, Conn., formerly pastor of the First Baptist church in this city. Mr. Roberts, in the letter, writes the letter is herewith printed:

Stamford, Conn., Aug. 13, 1903.

The dreadful news of last Saturday's drowning accident reached me by the New York papers. We have not yet seen your paper to get the home account of the calamity, but shall probably have it today. I cannot wait longer to express to some one of the many involved in this great loss and sorrow, my profound sympathy with them in this great affliction.

The shrouding of such a number of homes in midnight gloom must greatly depress the entire community. It does not need to be said, that the hearts of all resident citizens of Rockland, and of many now living elsewhere, will be moved to the depths by this same depredation.

The fellowship of trial will bring forth many proofs of what poor, human nature would do for their fellow mortals in such woes, if they could. The insufficiency of infinite comfort will allay each believing soul closer to the side of our Eternal Father, whose control we dare not question and whose kindness it is our wisdom never to deny.

Permit me to express through yourself, as you may have opportunity to convey it, the assurance of my prayerful and tearful remembrance of the wide circle of grief-stricken relatives.

Sincerely, W. S. Roberts.

THE WENTWORTH FAMILY.

The Wentworth reunion will be held at Rockland at Simon Wentworth's, Sept. 9, if pleasant; if not the first fair day. All friends and relatives invited.

SIMON TON'S

OUR

Annual Clearance Sale

1903 Wednesday, August 19th. 1903

10 DAYS OF REAL BARGAINS!

Giving an Opportunity to Every Man, Woman and Child that Comes Once a Year Only

Don't get mistaken!
Thinking This Sale is for One Day! 10 Days This Time!

We have been carefully preparing this sale for weeks and have gathered a collection of bargain gems that will surprise you, considering there is true worth compared with the prices quoted in the foregoing list.

DON'T SAY TO YOURSELF—Oh! I can get bargains at any time; for you are surely misguiding your better judgment. Better say, Here is the chance, and I for one intend to embrace it.

Bargain Column No. 1.	Bargain Column No. 2.	Bargain Column No. 3.	Bargain Column No. 5.	Bargain Column No. 4.	Bargain Column No. 6.
What you can Buy for 9c A 15c Cap and Sancer. A 25c pair of Men's Hose. A 15c Ladies' Vest. A 25c box Face Powder. A pair 12 1-2c Ladies' Black Hose. A yard 12 1-2c Straw Matting. A yard 12 1-2c Hamburg. A yard 12 1-2c Cretonne. A yard 12 1-2c Gingham. A yard 12 1-2c Percale. A remnant Fiber Carpet. A White Pillow—15c value. A Nice Pillow Slip. A Large Towel. A Nice Box Note Paper. A Nice Bottle Perfume.	Ladies' Corsets A choice lot of Duck Brand Corsets, all new, made of the best material, in this sale, only 29c. Ladies' Corsets A choice lot of Duck Brand Corsets, all new, made of the best material, in this sale, only 29c. Ladies' Corsets A choice lot of Duck Brand Corsets, all new, made of the best material, in this sale, only 29c.	Shirt Waists We shall make just two lots to close out our Summer Waists. LOT No. 1. Shirt Waists that have been selling as high as $1.25, in this sale, only 49c. LOT No. 2. Shirt Waists that have been selling as high as $1.25, in this sale, only 49c.	Clothes Racks In all wool material, mahogany finish, $1.00 value, in this sale, only 69c. Silk Ruffs 12 silk ruffs that have been selling at $2.50 value, in this sale, only 1.98. Pillow Tops 1 lot Pillow Tops in 12 1-2c percale, in the regular 25c quality, in this sale, only 9c. Rug Fringe Your choice of our rug fringe, regular 10c value, in this sale, only 9c.	Dimities and Lawns Your choice of our dimities and lawns, in this sale, only 63c. Waistings 4 pieces of White Waistings, regular 30c value, in this sale, only 33c. Percale 5 pieces of regular 12 1-2c percale, in this sale, only 9c. Shirt Waist 1 piece Black and White shirt waist, in this sale, only 89c.	Domestics. Sheeting 40 in. Hill, Unbleached sheeting, regular 30c value, in this sale, only 25c. Bed Quilts Large size, bamboo bed quilt, regular 75c value, in this sale, only 59c. Bed Quilts Extra large and heavy bed quilt, regular $1.50 value, in this sale, only 1.19. Ready-to-Use Sheets Bleached Sheets in box, regular 25c value, in this sale, only 19c. Blankets Large size Blankets, 11 1-2c value, in this sale, only 9c. Roller Towels 1 lot of 2 yd. Roller Towels, value 12c, in this sale, only 12c. Hand Gloss Towels Hand towels in Crash, 12 1-2c value, in this sale, only 49c. Crash, Crash 1 piece Half Bleached Crash, 1 1-2c value, in this sale, only 49c.

Remember This Sale is for 10 Days, beginning Wednesday, August 19.
Don't fail to see the big War Ships—40 of them—in Rockland Harbor, August 19th, 20th, 21st and 22nd.

SIMON TON'S

IN SPORTING CIRCLES.
There is an unprecedented interest in the sporting exhibition which is to take place in Elmwood hall next Friday night. All the best of the city are expected to be present. The exhibition is a 12-round match, arrived here bright and early yesterday morning and the local sports are ready to do their best. Kid McFadden of New York in a 12-round match, arrived here bright and early yesterday morning and the local sports are ready to do their best. Kid McFadden of New York in a 12-round match, arrived here bright and early yesterday morning and the local sports are ready to do their best.
The Wentworth Family. The Wentworth reunion will be held at Rockland at Simon Wentworth's, Sept. 9, if pleasant; if not the first fair day. All friends and relatives invited.

DENTISTRY

Special low prices at the Damon Dental Company

Extracting free where sets are ordered

We defy all Competition in prices and quality of work

Damon method of painless extracting ahead of all others

Sign of the Big D's

D D D D D

Marine

Matters

Sch. George Berry, Burgess, arrived Friday from Bath, where she discharged coal from New York.

Sch. Eliza Levenson, Kailoch, arrived in Thomaston Friday with coal from New York for J. O. Cushing & Co.

Sch. Carrie C. Miles, Johnson, arrived from Portsmouth, Saturday, where she discharged coal from New York.

Sch. American Team, Philbrook, arrived Sunday from New York with coal for Thorndike & Hix.

Sch. Nautilus, Tolman, arrived from New York Sunday via Dover.

Sch. Mabel Hall, Averill, sailed for New York Sunday with lime from A. J. Bird & Co.

Sch. Ethel P. Merriman, Newman, sailed Sunday for Boston with lime from Rockport.

The following vessels are in the stream loaded and ready to sail: Onward, Kailoch, with lime for Boston; Methine, Perry, stone for Annapolis; George Berry, Burgess, Stonington, to load stone for New York.

Sch. Myronus, Belatty, sailed Friday for Somers Sound to load stone for Philadelphia.

Sch. J. Frank Seavey, Kelly, arrived Monday from Stonington with stone for New York.

Sch. Woodbury M. Snow, Rice, is chartered to load paving at Brown's wharf, Vinahaven, for New York, at $1 per ton and wharfage.

Sch. J. R. Bodwell, Demmons, is chartered to load paving at Brown's wharf, Vinahaven, for New York, at $1 per ton and wharfage.

Sch. Ella F. Crowell, Thomas, sailed from New York the 15th with coal from Long Cove.

Sch. George E. Prescott and Mollie Rhodes arrived at Vinahaven Sunday with coal from New York.

Sch. Mary T. Quimby, Arey, arrived in Bath Sunday with coal from Baltimore.

Sch. Wm. Blisbee, Bernet, sailed from New Haven the 14th for Norfolk.

Sch. Florence Leland and Jennie G. Pillsbury arrived in New York Sunday from Rockland.

Haven Sunday with fire brick from Haven Sunday with first brick from Haven Sunday for Rockland.

Sch. Catawampus, Wilson, is chartered to load stone at High Island for Perth Amboy from George Greene.

IN THEATRICAL CIRCLES.

Season at Farwell Opera House Opened Very Successfully Last Night.

The Farwell opera house opened last evening to a large and successful season. The largest houses in the history of the present management, the S. R. O. sign being out long before the opening of the doors. The attraction that Manager Crockett selected for the opening night was one of the best that could be found at popular prices, and in fact one of the best popular priced attractions ever seen in the city. Moulton, Thompson & Moulton presented Miss Clara Turner and her all-star stock company, including their own concert orchestra, an excellent lot of specialties. Last night's play was new to the theatre-goers of this city and proved an excellent bill for Monday night. "The Sapphire" has plenty of the new comedy elements, all good and the comedy elements sufficient to amuse most any kind of an audience. All special scenery was used and every attention given to detail. The Clara Turner Company should pack 'em this week and we can only wish that all those attending that you will certainly get your money's worth. The concert orchestra carried by this company is a feature in itself. Tonight, "My Brother's Sister" will be the bill and tomorrow night Mrs. Carter's great success, "Madame Du Barri," with all special costumes and scenery. Only one matinee will be given during the week which will be on Saturday. The box office open all day during 9 a. m. and seats may be secured for any night during the engagement. Prices, 10, 20, 30 cents. Telephone, 40-1. No seats held after 8:15 unless paid for.

The appearance of Richard Golden's "Old Jed Prouty" in this city is always looked upon as one of the most important events of the theatrical season here. First, Richard Golden's play has a popularity second to none of those who visit us regularly each year. Second, its patrons always seem new, and attractive beauties in the old piece, no matter how often they go to see it. Third, its musical features are brighter, and its cast is stronger than in any of its former productions, making the success greater than at any time in its career.

Groton's Big American Minstrel, always welcome to Rockland, will be the first attraction of its kind seen in this city this season. All new this year is the verdict, not an old thing or an old feature in the show. Nothing like it has been seen here, and that is forty-four years old and still doing business. One night only, Thursday, Aug. 27, at Farwell opera house. Regular prices.

James J. Jeffries is the undisputed heavyweight champion of the world. In San Francisco Friday night he clinched his right to this title by again defeating his old rival, Corbett. The battle lasted 9 1-2 rounds and Corbett's seconds threw up the sponge in order to save him further punishment. The fight was witnessed by 10,000 persons and Jeffries not only won, but receiving his tidy sum of $43,638 as his share of the gate money. Corbett now declares that Jeffries stands alone in his class and can lick any two men in the ring.

NOTICE.

A meeting of the Stockholders of the Linco Rock National Bank will be held at their Banking Rooms in the City of Rockland on Friday, August 19th, 1903, at 2 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of seeing if the stockholders will change the form of doing business from that of a National Bank to a Trust Company and for this purpose to vote to place said Bank in voluntary liquidation, under the provisions of Sections 620 and 621, U. S. Revised Statutes and when such liquidation shall be completed and to transact any business properly coming before said meeting relative to such change and liquidation.

Per order Board of Directors
 Rockland, July 20, 1903. J. C. FERRY, Cashier

FAIR FOR SALE. A large farm of 30 to 100 acres, 11-2 miles from Rockland City. Fields in good cultivation, good pastures, handy and convenient buildings. A fine view of the salt water beach, and the proximity of Chickawankie Pond, a large lake of fresh water. A fine place for summer residence, or for a home. Terms reasonable. Address W. S. A. MORTON, Glen Cove.

The War Ships

Will Arrive Tomorrow August 18th

We shall make special inducements for all to visit our store during this week.

A cut of 10 per cent will be made on all Ox-fords in Stock.

This Cut will include everything—the Patrician and La France for Ladies' the Walk Over for Men's.

Lots of Oxford weather yet; the above cut only for this week.

Just arrived three styles in the Patrician Lace Shoes—more to follow. Call and look them over.

At The Hub Shoe Store

446 Main St., Opposite the Waiting Room

In Boston.

"Pierce" Tells Us Some of the Matters Going On At the Hub.

Boston, August 11, 1903.
Good morning! Have you had your vacation yet?

If not, take one. We're only going through this life once and we're not all built like Uncle Russell. Fage, Uncle Russell is just passing his 87th milestone and says he doesn't feel the need of any at all. But to repeat, we're not all like Uncle Russell. Ninety-nine men out of a hundred need rest. If they do not take it, they are very likely to be compelled to take it in a manner which is not always the most enjoyable.

There are different ways of taking a vacation and in looking into the question a little we are apt to find that the word vacation is not always synonymous with the word rest. To illustrate: a friend of mine took a long trip South last spring and passed a most enjoyable month there seeing the sights and basking in the warm sunshine when you and I had not thought seriously of discarding our heavy clothing for lighter. This week in speaking of it my friend said: "It is a mistake to take a vacation as I did. Not that I regret going, only it wasn't a vacation. I had no rest and that is what I miss now. If one is rich and has plenty of time, a long trip is a novelty and recreation, but to one who works hard, has little money, and needs rest, two weeks spent in the quiet country, within a hundred miles of home is best."

Another case: take Newport, and by Newport of course I mean the people who are naturally brought to mind by the mention of the name although there are hundreds who spend their summer vacations there whose names never appear in the paper and who do not lay awake nights trying to invent some new fad for the metropolitan dailies to exploit.

It is only this week that we have been told by a woman who knows that the Newport set are beginning to wake up to the fact that the summer place there is too hot and not conducive to the rest which is absolutely essential after the strain of a winter in New York society. The cry goes up from Newport that the leaders of society are not there and the season is a failure. Where are they? They are at Bar Harbor, up the Hudson, in the mountains, on the Long Island shore, or cruising aimlessly about on their floating palaces, but they are enjoying a vacation which means to them what it was originally intended to mean—a rest.

Ever been to Newport?

If you have, did you see anything there the way of natural scenery that is not equalled or surpassed right in your own neighborhood with Camden as a center and stretching from the Lincolnshire park to Lincolnville Beach? If you did, I have missed it. I have never been to Newport without being forcibly impressed with the possibilities of Camden.

To me, Camden is one of the most beautiful spots on this earth. The natural combination of mountain, plain and sea cannot be surpassed anywhere. The view from the piazza at Norumbega and the other cottages commanding the sea far surpasses anything that Newport where there is little but the open sea unrelieved by any of the beautiful islands for which Penobscot bay is noted. There is nothing on Bellevue avenue which could not be transferred to your Belfast road without increasing rather than decreasing the beauty of its natural surroundings.

The cliff walk at Newport is famous the world over but there are the cliffs and the sea along your shore which would make another equally as attractive. Mrs. Vanderbilt's "The Breakers," does not occupy a more beautiful position than that which I am pleased to note you are opening up on the northern shore of Camden harbor, commonly known as Sherman's Point.

Rockland harbor can hold the pleasure craft of the North Atlantic on its spacious bosom and the harbors at Rockport and Camden can easily take care of a large number in safety. The scenery of the coast of Maine within this region I have many times made the statement that it is possible to remain at the Samoset a whole month and take a different drive every day. Really I have digressed considerably from my original intention but when I get started on the beauties of your region I never know where to stop. You will of course gather from the drift of my rambling remarks that I have been spending my vacation down there. Not only a vacation but a rest. I did a little haying, a little work in the garden, made a little butter (which was really eatable), caught a few fish, took a few drives, read a little fiction, went to roost with the chickens and got up rather earlier in the morning than I am accustomed to, but I got my lungs full of good pure air, got the cobwebs out of my brain, strengthened up my muscles and put on a little flesh in addition to a good healthy digestion and a swarthy complexion. Just what I want after so there is no kick coming.

Boston is very quiet. Those who can take a vacation are doing so now and those who have already taken one are so busy trying to catch up that there is nothing doing. The condition of the weather has not been satisfactory to the beach resort proprietors but the few managers whose theatres are open have no cause for complaint. The Charles is working overtime and the Common's full of rye. The teachers have all gone, likewise the followers of the lady of Concord, the German fan-club and all the other societies and or-

We like best to call

SCOTT'S EMULSION

a food because it stands so emphatically for perfect nutrition. And yet in the matter of restoring appetite, of giving new strength to the tissues, especially to the nerves, its action is that of a medicine.

Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409-415 Pearl Street, New York. 50c and $1.00; all druggists.

Rockland Commercial College

Re-opens Tuesday, Sept. 8, 1903, under more favorable auspices than ever before.
ONE WEEK'S INSTRUCTION FREE to all new students who enter on the opening date. Half rates on the R. T. & C. St. Railway. Call or write for illustrated catalogue.

HOWARD & BROWN, Proprietors.

What are you reading this summer weather?

If you haven't a copy of the humorous book,

What Happened To Wigglesworth

You should get one now. The book sells steadily and no volume of humor ever published contains more laughs to the page.

An eminent literary critic lately named W. D. Howells, T. B. Aldrich, "Mark Twain" and Henry Van Dyke as the four leading writers in America. It is worthy of note that the three last named of this quartet has each written in warm commendation of "What Happened to Wigglesworth."

The Courier-Gazette will forward copies by mail prepaid for $1.50 each. To be had at all bookstores.

Organizations which have been convening here this summer, August always is a dull month in Boston and this is no exception.

My old friend and pastor, Rev. P. S. Henson, D. D., now of Brooklyn is preaching at Tremont Temple this month. A very large audience gathered to hear him Sunday morning and several of the local papers on the following morning, construed Deacon Wentworth's remarks to be in favor of him as the new pastor. This morning I note that the Deacon has denied having any such intention. Aside from this I very much doubt if the genial Doctor would assume such a pastorate at his time of life. He is about 70 although his audience Sunday morning was given little proof of the fact. His church in Brooklyn of which he has been pastor not two years yet is composed of a large number of wealthy families and the duties are not so exacting as would be those of the pastor of the Temple. If Dr. Henson should come to the Temple he would draw fully as large audiences as the late pastor and I predict would be fully as popular. It is not generally known that the father of Rev. W. W. Everts, the present assistant pastor at the Temple, was pastor for about 20 years of the First Baptist church in Chicago where Dr. Henson was pastor for a like period and that Dr. Lorimer was pastor of that church for two or three years between the pastorates of Drs. Everts and Henson so that Tremont Temple history for the past 20 years is intimately connected with that of the First Baptist church of Chicago.

At the regular August meeting of the Knox Club, it was voted to remain at the present headquarters at least until a majority of the members returned from their vacations, the small number now in the city not being willing to take a step of so vital interest to the welfare of the club without a larger representation of the club present.

Every man who reads this notice and who is a resident of Boston or vicinity, claiming a connection with the county of Knox, is hereby requested to make a memorandum of the fact that he has a date for the evening of the 22nd of September with the boys of the Knox Club at their rooms, 72 Waltham street, Boston. I say boys but you will meet some there whose hair is not by any stretch of the imagination be called dark and some who have not much to speak of but whose hearts are much to speak of and who will be glad to see you at their fall reunion of members and friends. There is likely to be some sort of a feed. This notice will appear again but we give it early so you can keep the date open. This is a Stag, Ladies will have their turn later on.

Eczema, scald head, hives, itchininess of the skin of any sort instantly relieved permanently cured. Dean's Ointment. At any drug store.

The next session of the Grand Army encampment is likely to be held in New England.

Dean's Rheumatic Pills absolutely cure Rheumatism and Neuralgia. Entirely vegetable. Safely taken.

The Keeley Institute in Portland, Me., on Munjoy Hill, is successfully curing drunkards and drug users. 42-41

The weather report brought to us every morning on a postal card minus the stamp.

Across the bay is Campobello Island, Can., with its famous "Tya-Y-Coed" hotel and scores of private summer residences.

About three miles from here is Lubec, made famous by Jerrold and his salt water gold mines which at one time employed over 600 men. The works are nearly in ruins now but the people have a fine iron bridge built by the company, which will stand as a monument to Jerrold long after the salt water gold is forgotten. At present Lubec is entertaining all visitors with a trip to the water works, which are considered the finest in this section of the state. The water flows from springs into a reservoir holding 500,000 gallons and is of excellent quality.

The Atlantic Standard time which is one hour faster than our standard is used in New Brunswick, so the boat leaving St. John for Eastport at 2 a. m., makes the run in four hours and arrives here at 11 a. m. The International Railway running from Montreal to Halifax and St. John runs on the twenty-four hour plan, so when you are in Halifax and want to take a trip over the International System, don't be surprised if they inform you that the next train for Montreal leaves at forty-five minutes past fourteen o'clock, for that translated into United States means 2:45 p. m. All aboard!

L. D. Candage.

Boxed Sweets

If you want candy that's pure, wholesome, pleasant to the taste, and that makes you want more try Daggett's. We have a nice assortment.

Put UP IN FANCY BOXES.

If you and this candy ever become acquainted a friendly will-I-do-as-long-as-both-are-living, and then will come the sweet remembrances.

Try a Rubber Brush for the Complexion—makes the blood circulate freely and keeps complexion clear. Only 50 Cents.

C. H. Moor & Co.

ROCKLAND

CAMDEN ANCHOR-ROCKLAND MACHINE CO.
ROCKLAND, MAINE.

Fancy Gowns, Etc. CLEANSED

In an Up-to-Date Manner
Bangor Steam Dye House
Mrs. E. F. Crockett
371 Main Street
AGENT FOR KNOX COUNTY

The Courier-Gazette goes into a larger number of families in Knox county than any other paper published.

The Keeley Institute in Portland, Me., on Munjoy Hill, is successfully curing drunkards and drug users. 42-41

The weather report brought to us every morning on a postal card minus the stamp.

Across the bay is Campobello Island, Can., with its famous "Tya-Y-Coed" hotel and scores of private summer residences.

About three miles from here is Lubec, made famous by Jerrold and his salt water gold mines which at one time employed over 600 men. The works are nearly in ruins now but the people have a fine iron bridge built by the company, which will stand as a monument to Jerrold long after the salt water gold is forgotten. At present Lubec is entertaining all visitors with a trip to the water works, which are considered the finest in this section of the state. The water flows from springs into a reservoir holding 500,000 gallons and is of excellent quality.

The Atlantic Standard time which is one hour faster than our standard is used in New Brunswick, so the boat leaving St. John for Eastport at 2 a. m., makes the run in four hours and arrives here at 11 a. m. The International Railway running from Montreal to Halifax and St. John runs on the twenty-four hour plan, so when you are in Halifax and want to take a trip over the International System, don't be surprised if they inform you that the next train for Montreal leaves at forty-five minutes past fourteen o'clock, for that translated into United States means 2:45 p. m. All aboard!

L. D. Candage.

NORTHPORT CAMPMEETING.

Annual Program as Finally Arranged Contemplates Interesting Service.

Rev. L. H. Wharf, president of the Northport Campmeeting Association, is now completing the final arrangements for the annual program which will open at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, Aug. 31. As in former years, there will be a large attendance from this city. Among the pastors who will be in attendance are Rev. W. W. Ogier, pastor of Grace church; Rev. W. J. Yates, Ph.D., of Pine Street M. E. church; Rev. L. L. Hanson, Rockland; Rev. Robert Sutcliffe, Bucksport; Rev. G. H. Hamilton, Searsport; Rev. T. F. Jones, presiding elder of the Rockland district; Rev. F. L. Hayward, president-elder of the Bucksport district.

Tuesday the services will be led by Rev. E. H. Boynton of Brewer and the local preachers will be assisted by J. F. Haley, D. D., of Portland. Wednesday the services will be led by Rev. L. Hanson, D. D., of Rockland and E. R. Thorndike, D. D., of Boston will assist in the services. Thursday Rev. W. J. Yates of Bangor will lead the services with the assistance of other preachers and E. M. Taylor, D. D., of Boston. Friday the service will be led by Rev. C. A. Plumer, chaplain of the Maine state prison at Thomaston, assisted by C. W. Waterville, formerly of this city and others.

The assignment of a leader to each day is a new feature adopted this season and is likely to prove much pleasanter. Any vacancies will be filled by the executive committee and arrangements will be made later for the Saturday meeting.

Prayer meetings will be held each morning and evening at some of the various cottages where there is ample room and these announcements will be made from time to time. A children's meeting will be held daily at 1 o'clock. Deaconess Norma Fenderick and others from the Deaconess Home in Bangor will be present and assist in the work, which will be pleasing to all interested in the meetings.

The music this season will be under the direction of Rev. A. L. Nutter of Union. A soloist will be present during the week and an effort is being made to secure the services of the same excellent ladies' quartet of Wintertop which was there last season.

A Physician Healed.

Dr. Geo. Ewin, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed it hundreds of cases with perfect success." Many persons in this community are suffering from kidney complaint who could avoid fatal results by using Foley's Kidney Cure. W. C. Pooler, Atkins & McDonald, Thomaston.

Quick Relief for Asthmatic Sufferers. Foley's Honey and Tar affords immediate relief to asthmatic sufferers in the worst stages and if taken in time will cure a cure. W. C. Pooler, Atkins & McDonald, Thomaston.

Proper Shoes For Men's Feet

The one absolutely necessary thing about shoes is that they shall fit. Unless they fit you feel "slouchy," walk clumsily, dragging the feet along, because they are tired—All because you bought shoes without regard to fit.

THE KONQUEROR

Shoe is one we can recommend. The name fits the shoe. Built well inside and out, look well, easy and neat, long lived, light on the feet.

$4.00, $3.50 and $3.00

YOU WILL LIKE THEM IF YOU ONCE WEAR THEM.

THE FRANKLIN

The best possible shoe for the money ever made. This has been proven by the severest tests. Made for wear, although neat and attractive looking. Has style, wear and are cheap.

$2.00 and $2.50

Wentworth & Co.

OFF, THORNDIKE HOTEL

If You Knead BREAD, IT IS CERTAIN THAT YOU NEED FLINT'S

Why should you Bake Bread at this season of the year, or at any time, when you can get sweet bread of the Baker?

OUR BREAD IS ALWAYS MOIST, CLEAN AND PERFECT. IT IS NEVER SOUR, BUT ALWAYS GOOD. IT CAN BE BOUGHT OF US AT A GREAT SAVING OF TIME, FUEL AND EXPENSE.

TO ILLUSTRATE
25 Loaves of Flint's Bread costs you $1.25
25 lbs. Pillsbury's Best Flour.....75c
25 lbs. Butter.....1.00
25 lbs. Sugar.....1.00
25 Eggs......50
Salt......10
Total.....$3.30

Saving.....$2.05

You still have to supply the fuel and make and bake the bread. Is anything plainer than this? GIVE OUR BREAD A TRIAL. FLINT BROS. ROCKLAND

A CLEVER ILLUSTRATION WITH CONCLUSIVE PROOF.

There is an old formula in philosophy which says that no two things can occupy the same place at the same time. A simple illustration, drive a nail into a board and you will find with every stroke of the hammer, the nail will force aside the particles of wood into which it is being driven, finally making a place for itself, and proving that the nail and the wood do not occupy the same place at the same time.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER and Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cannot occupy the same place at the same time. If you are troubled with frequent pains in the back, if your urine stains linen; if you urinate frequently during the night, and a burning pain accompanies its passage, your kidneys and bladder are in bad shape and should be treated at once.

Every dose of DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY slowly but surely pushes aside some of the particles of the diseased tissues of the kidneys and bladder, liver, blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and constipation, until they completely disappear. Do not lose faith or find fault, if you are not entirely cured by one bottle, because if these diseases have fastened their grip on you the longer and harder it is to drive them away.

Druggists sell it in New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles. Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N.Y.

A STRONG BANK VAULT.

Burglars and Fire Now Have No Business With Thomaston National Bank.

The Thomaston National Bank have just put their new fire-proof vault and burglar-proof vault set in place, and are now keeping their customers' valuables, as well as their own, fully protected against fire and professional burglars.

The walls of this vault are built of stone 24 inches in thickness, laid up in cement, and on the inside there is a strong iron cage formed of railroad iron 4 inches in thickness. In addition to this the bank has had built and placed inside a heavy steel lining on all sides, top and bottom. In so doing it makes the body of the vault impregnable against attacks by burglars.

In addition to this steel lining there is a massive steel vestibule with inside reserve doors and heavy outer door made and constructed solid of the best steel plates and angles known for their quality and resistance against explosives and drilling in case of attack by professional burglars.

The locks and bolt work on the inside reserve door are operated and controlled by two lock combination locks, and the bolt work on the heavy outside door is operated by an automatic bolt device and a triple-movement time lock. By using this modern device of locking it does away with the old-fashioned key and arbor through the door, leaving the outside door solid, having no connection with the outer world after once the automatic and time lock has been set.

On the inside of this vault and behind these massive doors the bank has placed over 100 steel and iron deposit boxes, of assorted sizes, to be rented to their patrons at a small rental per year, furnishing the best security against fire and burglars for the protection of their customers' valuables that can be had in this state.

This vault was built by the Mosier Safe Company, Boston, Mass., and in connection with this work all modern devices and the very best material has been used in the construction of this vault to make it second to none, and the bank cheerfully invites all interested parties to call and inspect this work, and see for themselves a modern vault where they can leave their securities with the assurance that they will be perfectly secure from fire or burglars.

BE YOUR OWN JUDGE.

MI-O-NA, Costs You Nothing if It Does Not Cure, Says C. H. Pendleton's.

MI-O-NA, the remarkable flesh forming food and cure for dyspepsia has won fame by its unusual way in which it sold. It is the only remedy offered for the cure of dyspepsia which costs the user absolutely nothing unless it cures. C. H. Pendleton, the popular druggist is selling a great many packages of MI-O-NA and with every box is given his personal guarantee to refund the money if MI-O-NA does not give satisfaction, you be your own judge as to the remedy helps or not.

MI-O-NA is an unusual combination, it is a flesh forming food combined with agents that regulate the digestive organs and remove irritation, constipation and inflammation from the stomach, liver and intestines. It enables those organs to extract from the food all that goes to make good, rich blood, firm muscles, steady nerves and sound body. It does not contain any poison, pain-creatin or other drugs, that never effect a cure and rarely give even temporary relief.

MI-O-NA puts the digestive system into proper working order, gives health strength and good flesh, and is the natural cure for indigestion. Even in chronic cases, where life is long drawn out pain, this remedy will effect a cure. It is the simplest and most reliable of all remedies. Just one tablet before or after meals and you can eat a hearty meal without distress.

If MI-O-NA does not do all that is claimed for it, C. H. Pendleton will cheerfully refund your money.

CAPT. NORWOOD'S CHIVALRY.

Five women from Bangor and vicinity, who have been visiting near Owl's Head, started in a row boat around the north shore to visit the light at that point. They attempted to land near the lighthouse but the surf was running so high that their boat soon became unmanageable. Seeing that their boat was likely to be smashed on the rocks, two of the party jumped out to shallow water and attempted to pull it up out of the way but in this they were unsuccessful until the arrival of Capt. Norwood, the keeper of the light at that point, who helped the women to safely land and rowed their boat around to a sheltered cove for them. Capt. Norwood invited the dripping party to his home where they were able to dry their clothes after which they were shown the immaculate lamp and reflector in the light house. The party is loud in its praise of the keeper for his entertainment while at the lighthouse and for seeing the members safely embarked on the homeward voyage.

PLYMOUTH COAL
You Know What It Is.
$7.50 per Ton
25c per ton Discount for Cash in 10 Days
Simmons, White & Co.

Care for your Animals as you would for yourself.

We are constantly receiving fresh invoices of CORN, MEAL, OATS, Etc.

Try our Flour—those who use it think it the Best Ever.

FRED R. SPEAR
PARK ST., ROCKLAND

OUR MOTTO, PURITY AND EFFICACY
Burkhardt Brewing Co's Malt Extract

Its Strong Points:
It is absolutely pure
Slightly stimulant
Is a strong nutrient
Easily assimilated by weakest stomach
Great benefit to convalescent
Strongly recommended for nursing mothers

20c a bottle, $2 a doz.

W. C. Pooler
Sole Agent for Rockland and vicinity

We Are Buying Blueberries Paying Market Prices
BRING THEM TO OUR FACTORY ON SEA ST.

Thorndike & Hix
Mexican Drawn ork

We have on consignment a nice lot of Mexican Drawn Work, all hand made, consisting of Dollies, Lunch Cloths, Handkerchiefs, Shirt Waists, Neckties, Collars, Medallions, Babies Bonnets, etc. ALL PURE LINEN. These are suitable for Wedding Presents.

Ladies should see this work without delay. Words cannot describe their beauty.

Agent Bangor Dye House and Butterick's Patterns.

THE LADIES' STORE
MRS. E. F. ROCKETT
OFF, W. O. HEWITT & CO.

JUSTICE IS BLIND
and love cross-eyed, but when you send a lady imperfect pictures, you will find that she's well, that's different. The

GLUCK STUDIO
makes the right kind, so everything will be lovely.

359 MAIN STREET

Simonton's
416 & 412 Main
14 Linen
Carpet Annex

Rockland Music School
43 PARK STREET
SUMMER SESSION
Term Commences on Monday, June 29
Class or Private Instruction
ON A Combination of Both Methods
Musical Kindergarten for Youngest Pupils
Preparatory Grade for Older Beginners
Intermediate and Advanced Grades

While pupils may be enrolled at any time, the grading of classes is facilitated if all commence at the beginning of the term. Therefore an early application is requested.
Teachers: Mrs. Carrie B. Shaw
Mrs. Emma E. Wight
Miss Allie T. Shaw, Assistant.

VOCAL MUSIC.
THOMAS P. HAYDEN will be pleased to receive pupils during the summer season in Rockland. Mr. Hayden has been studying nearly three years with Prof. William Howard, a pupil of Randegger at the University School of Music at Ann Arbor, Mich. Address 65 MECHANIC ST., Rockland, Maine.

MR. R. N. LISTER
Can be found Monday and Thursday afternoons at Mrs. Shaw's Music Studio, Park Street, to give lessons. Mr. Lister will stay well into September and an excellent opportunity is offered singers to test his splendid method. With 20 years experience he knows just what each pupil needs and rapid progress is assured.

MISS FLOREN E. JONES
Violinist and Teacher
Pupil of Mr. C. M. Loeffler of Boston, Mass.
Will receive pupils during the Summer Months
176 Main St. Telephone 243-3

Diamond Bug Killer
Destroys the Potato bug, bugs, insects, canker and cutworm, etc., and does it better and cheaper than any other killer.

A Quick Fertilizer.
The DIAMOND BUG KILLER used on the farm, gardens and flower beds insures larger crops and more beautiful flowers.

Large 3 1-2 lb. Packages Only 25 Cents.
W. C. POOLER, Druggist
MAIN STREET

$400.00 REWARD!
The above reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties setting any of the recent fires, or any such fires during the present municipal year.
W. J. FERNALD, City Marshal.
Rockland, July 15, 1903.

Housekeepers Should See the New HODGES FIBER CARPET
Rugs and Art Squares
Soft, Pliable and Odorless
Warm in Winter - Cool in Summer
AN IDEAL SANITARY CHAMBER CARPET
For All the Year Round
Sews together and turns under. Does not break or require binding. No colors or germs of disease. Insects do not trouble it. Water does not injure it. No soap. No lint. No dust. Heavy fiber does not break it. Double faced—double wear. Artistic color—style—designs.

SOLE AGENTS.
We Cordially Invite Inspection.
SIMONTON'S
416 & 412 Main
14 Linen
Carpet Annex